About this book

How to get the most out of it

Book One follows the early life of Prophet Muḥammad (peace be upon him) across nine maps and thirty-six stories — from the Arabia he was born into, to the night the Qurʾān began.

Every story is told in panels, like a comic. Read the pictures as well as the words. At the end of each map there is a Quest Check to see what you remember, a question to think hard about, and a box to draw in.

Author	Feysel Reshid
Series	Seeraa Quest — Book 1 of 5
Source	The Seeraa Quest course, following widely taught accounts of the sīrah including Ar-Raḥīq al-Makhtūm (The Sealed Nectar).

> HOW THE PICTURES WORK
> The Prophet (peace be upon him) and his Companions are never drawn. The scenes show the places, the objects and the landscapes — and where he speaks, his words appear as words.

MAP 1 · WHERE IT ALL BEGINS

Arabia Before Islam

A house was built in an empty valley for one reason only.
Then the people forgot the reason.

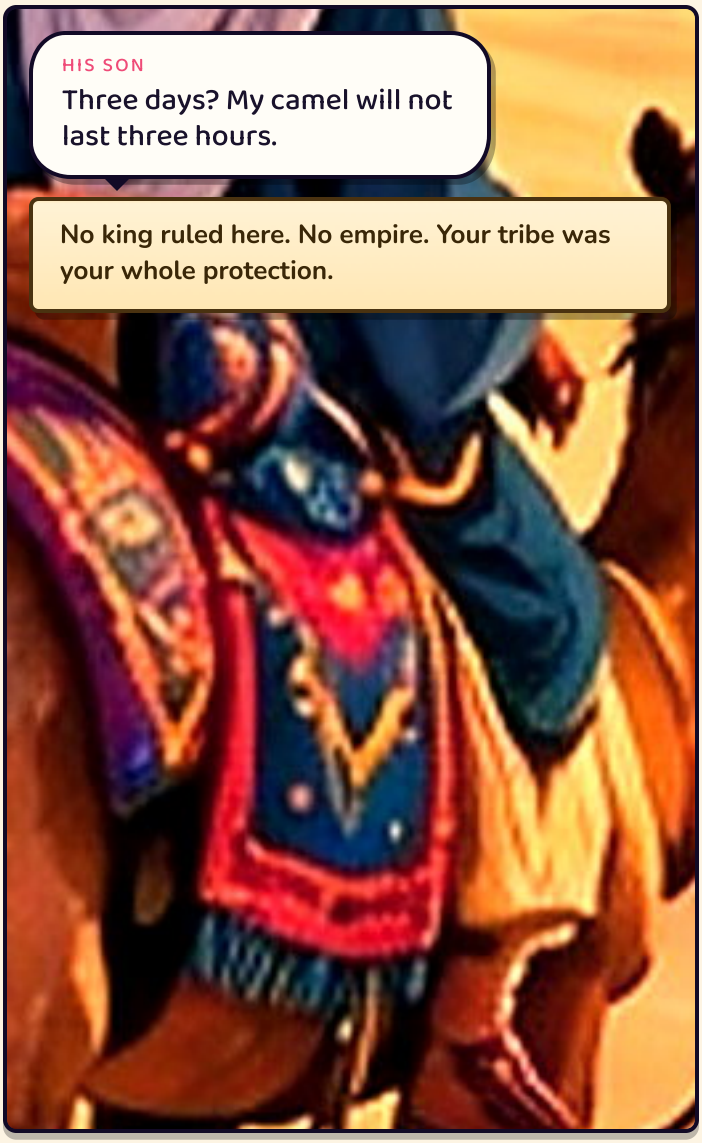
IN THIS MAP

1. Arabia Before Islam
2. The House of Allah
3. How the Idols Came
4. A Society in Need of Guidance

MAP 1 · STORY 1

Arabia Before Islam

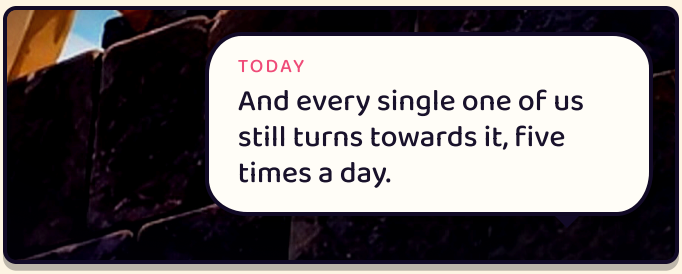
The land and its people



STORY TREASURE

Islam did not arrive in an empty world. It arrived in a world that had good in it and terrible wrong in it, all tangled together.

The House of Allah

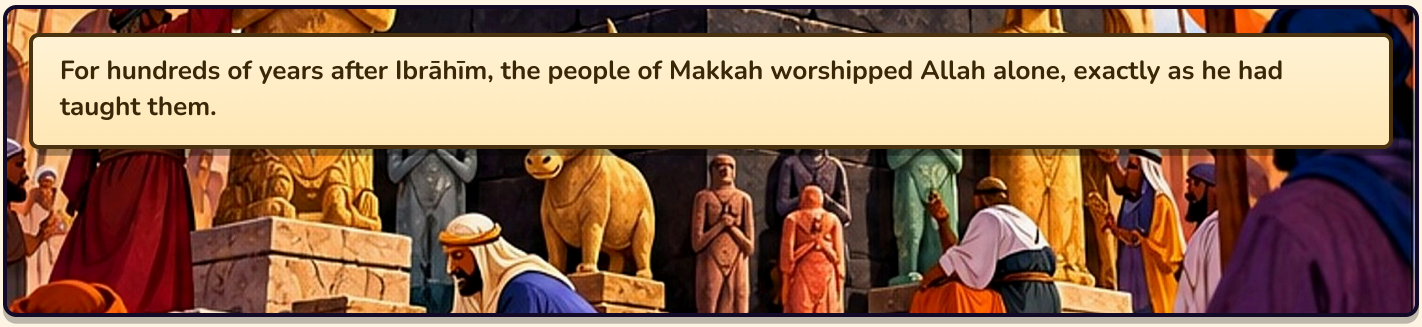


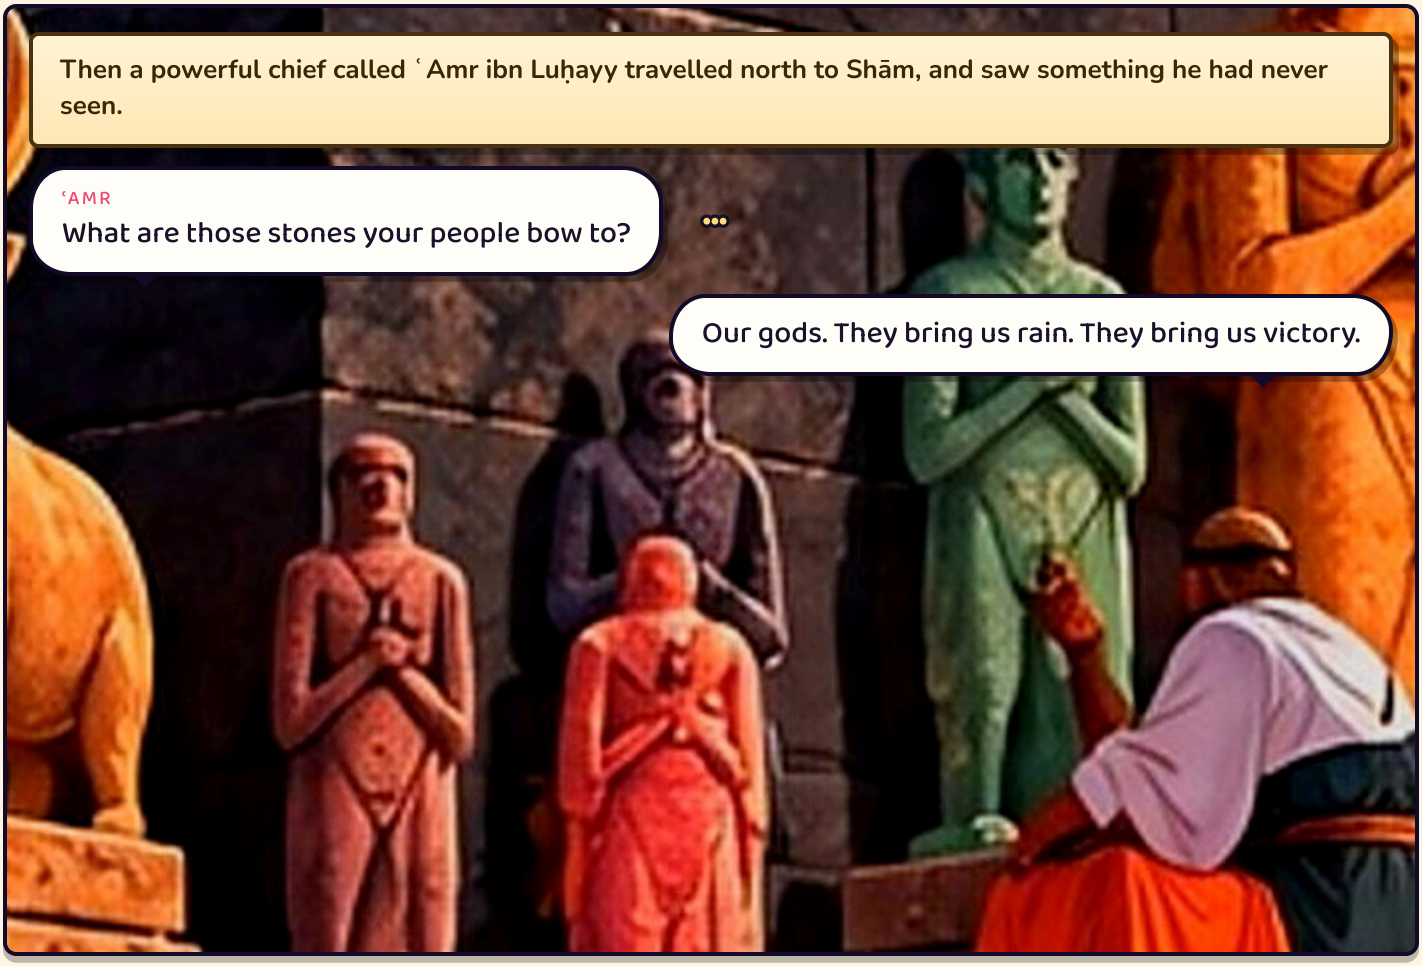
STORY TREASURE

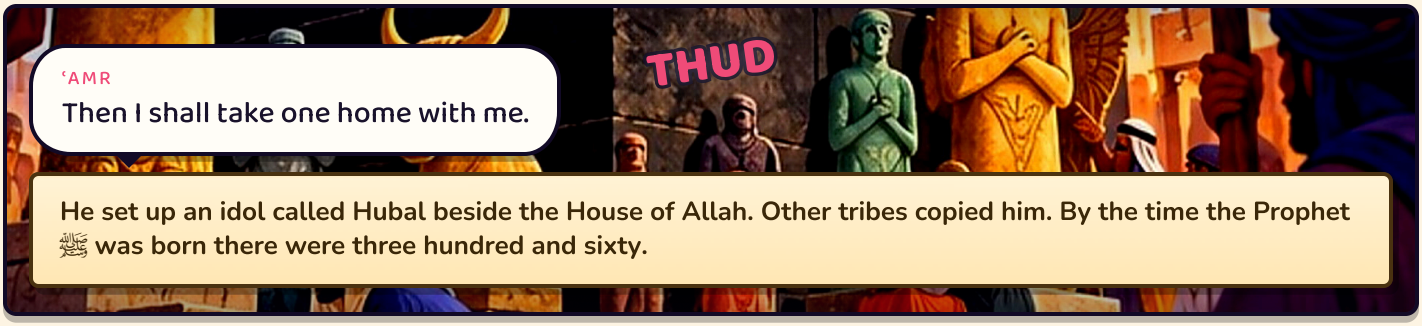
Our masjids and our prayers are for Allah alone — never for anyone or anything else.

How the Idols Came

The truth covered over







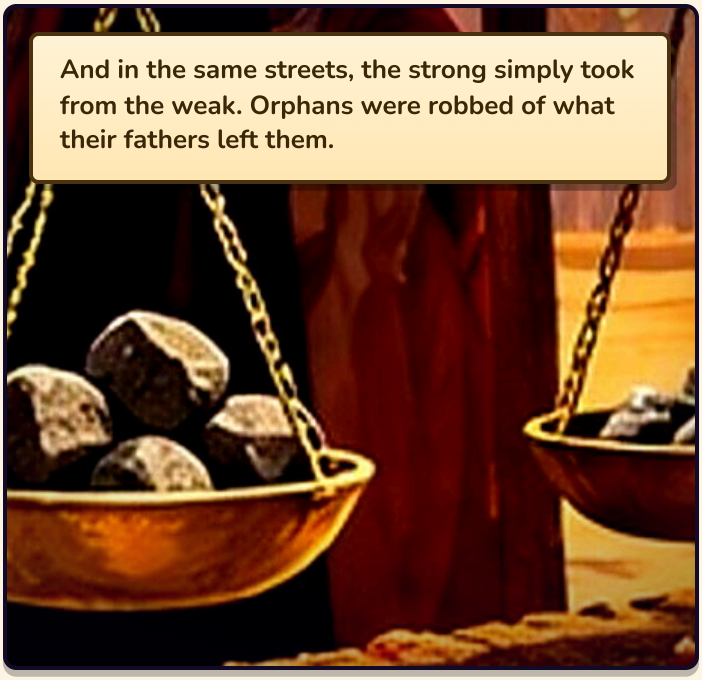
STORY TREASURE

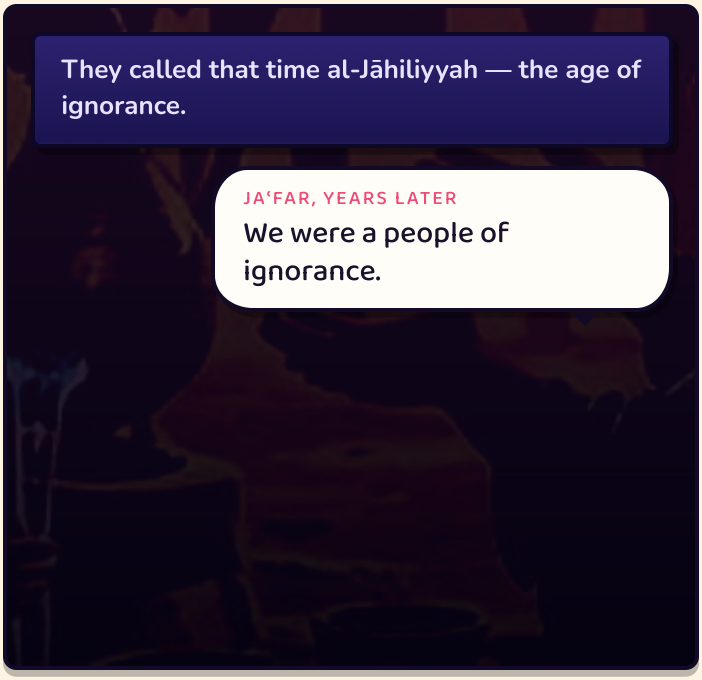
Nobody woke up one morning and decided to leave Allah. It took hundreds of years — and it started with one man liking something he saw on a journey.

MAP 1 · STORY 4

A Society in Need of Guidance

Good hearts, serious wrongs





STORY TREASURE

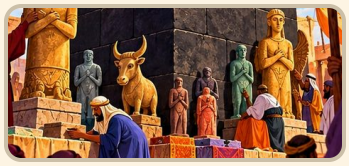
Islam did not throw away who the Arabs were. It kept their courage and their generosity — and it removed the injustice.

MEANWHILE, IN THAT SAME CITY…

One family was already there — feeding pilgrims, digging up a well everyone had given up on, and making a promise that nearly cost a boy his life.

Map 1 Quest Check

Arabia Before Islam



1. What surrounds the Arabian Peninsula on three sides?

- ○ Seas
- ○ Forests
- ○ Snowy mountains

2. Who built the Kaʻbah?

- ○ Ibrāhīm and his son Ismāʿīl
- ○ The kings of Yemen
- ○ The people of Madīnah

3. Who first brought an idol to the Kaʻbah?

- ○ ʿAmr ibn Luḥayy
- ○ Abrahah
- ○ Ismāʿīl

4. What is the time before Islam called?

- ○ Al-Jāhiliyyah
- ○ Al-Hijrah
- ○ Al-Fatḥ

THINK DEEPER

ʿAmr ibn Luḥayy was not trying to ruin anything. He just liked what he saw. What is one small habit that could pull a person slowly away from what they know is right?

YOUR TURN TO DRAW

Draw the Kaʿbah at dusk with the shapes of the idols crowded around it. Make the idols shadows — and make the House the one clean thing on your page.

MAP 2 · ROOTS

The Prophet's Family

A name that meant "the one who breaks bread".
A well that had vanished. And a hundred camels.

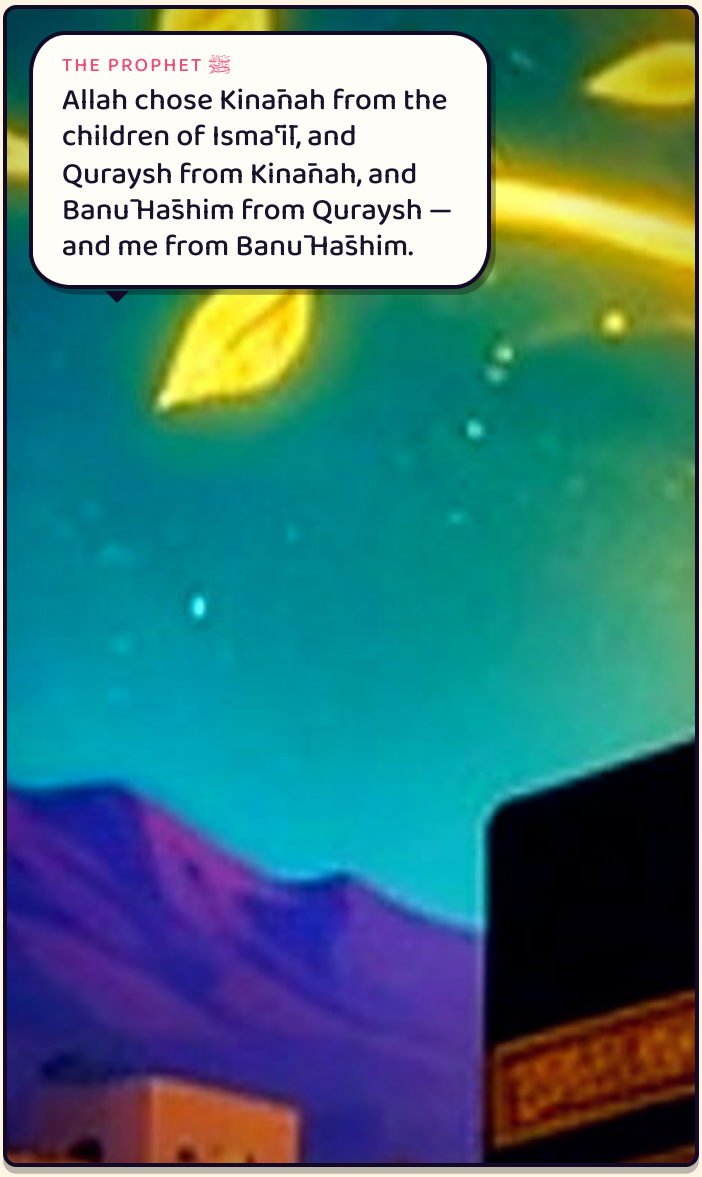
IN THIS MAP

1. The Line of Ibrāhīm
2. Hāshim, Who Shared Bread
3. ʿAbd al-Muṭṭalib Finds Zamzam
4. ʿAbdullāh and Āminah

MAP 2 · STORY 1

The Line of Ibrahīm

An honoured family



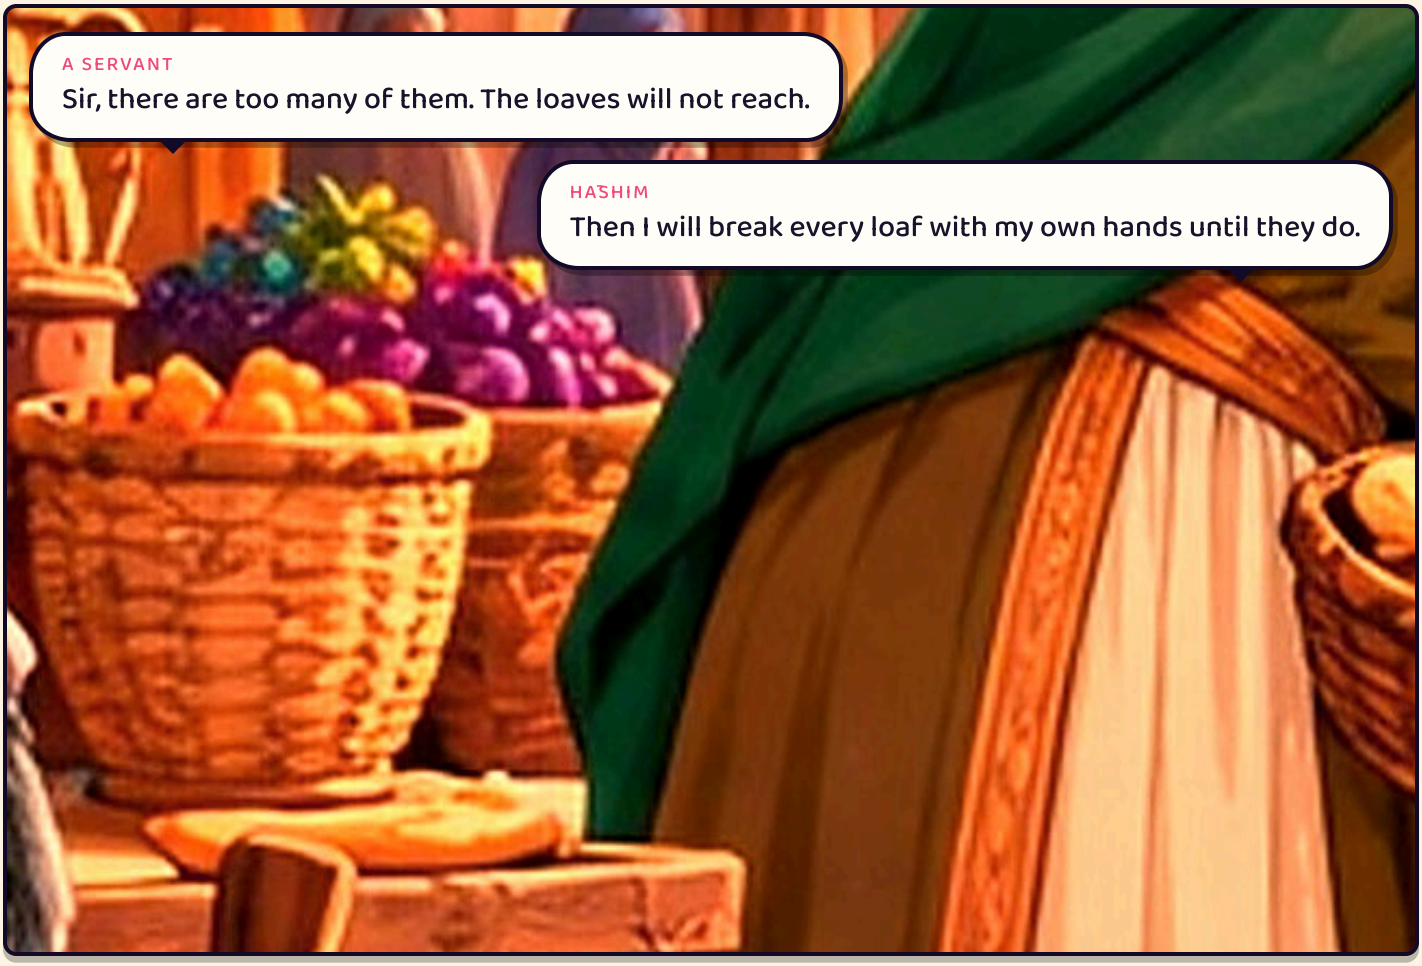
STORY TREASURE

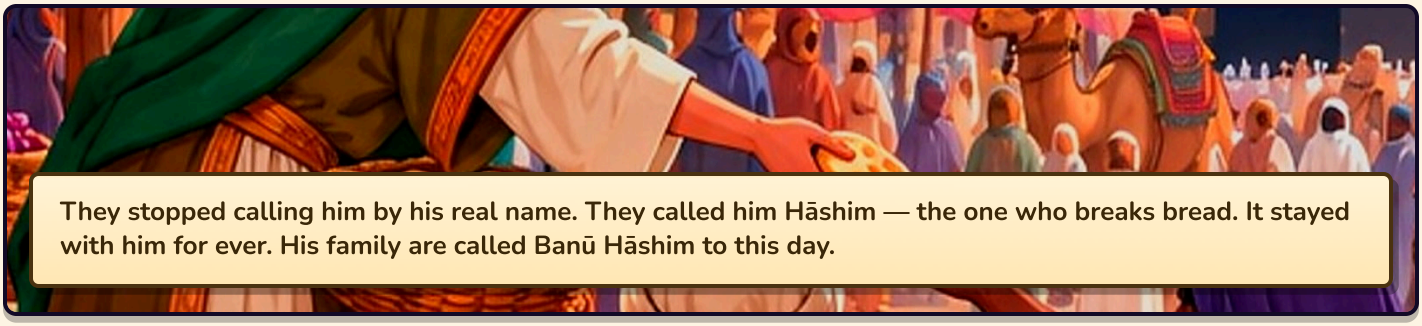
Where you come from is a gift. What you do with it is the test.

MAP 2 · STORY 2

Hāshim, Who Shared Bread

Feeding the pilgrims





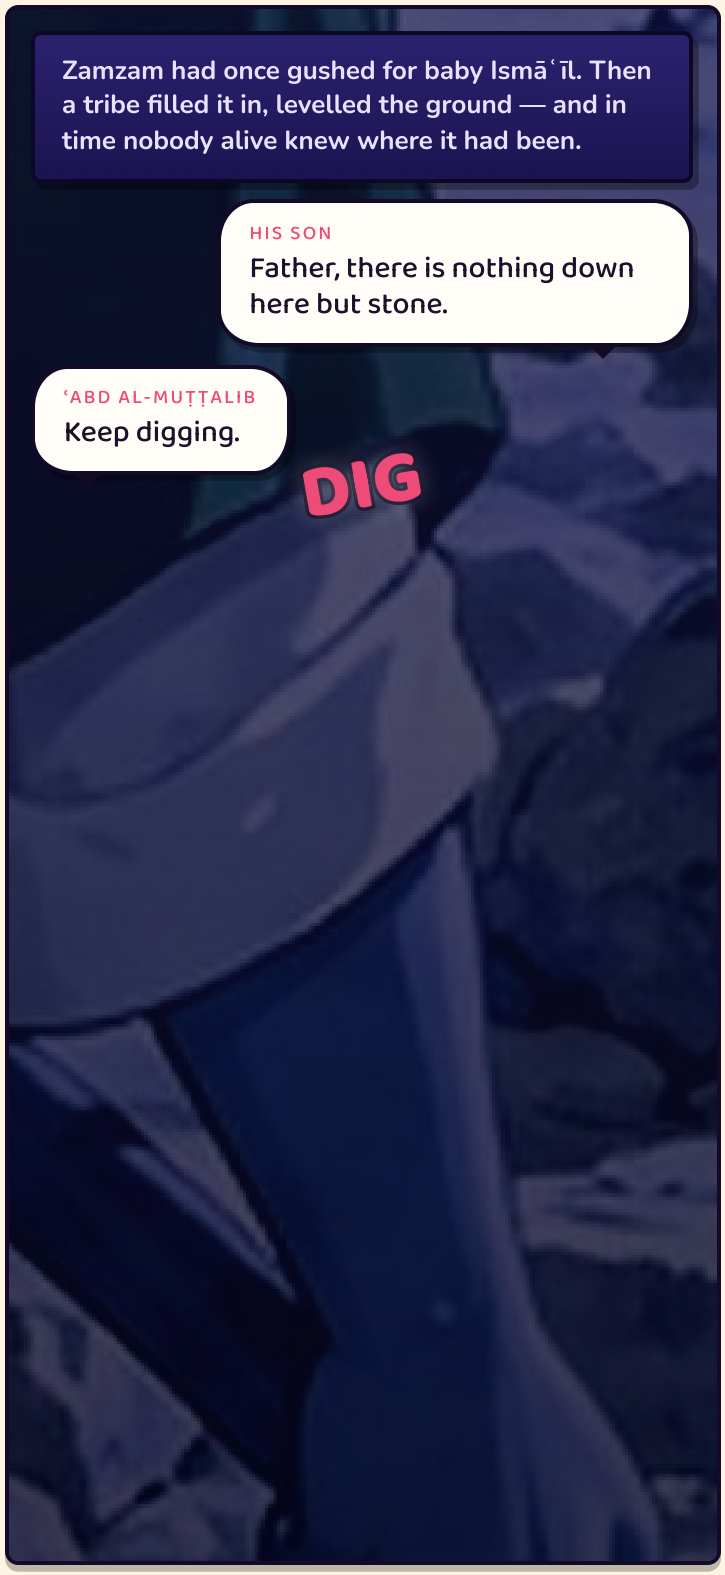
STORY TREASURE

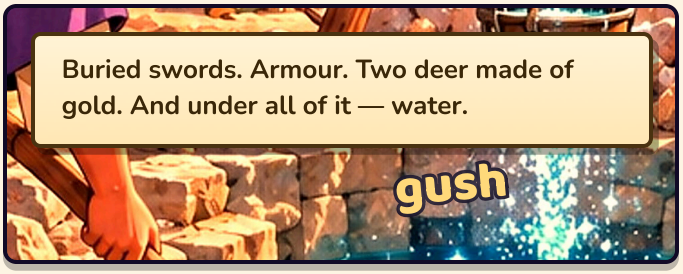
He could have fed them and said nothing. People remembered how he did it longer than they remembered what he gave.

MAP 2 • STORY 3

ʿAbd al-Muṭṭalib Finds Zamzam

A lost blessing returns





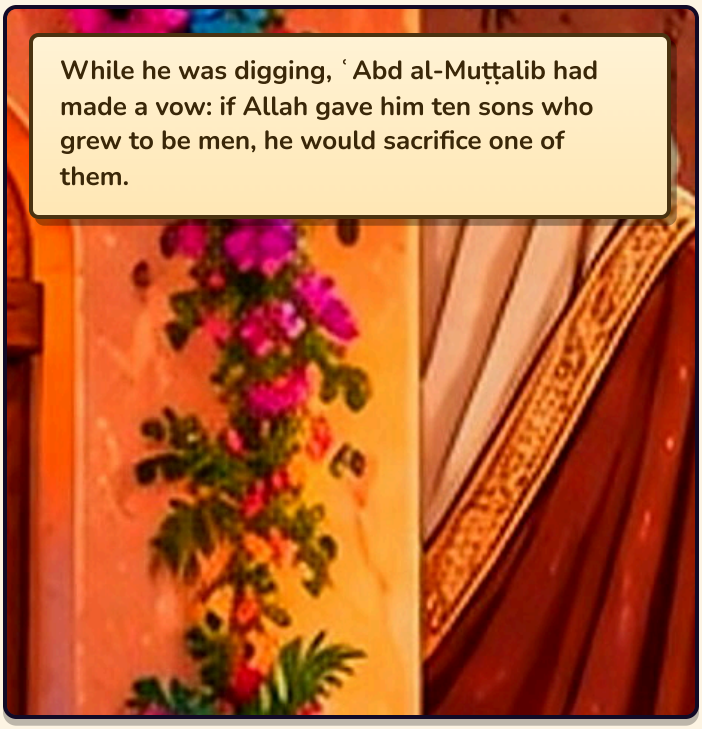
STORY TREASURE

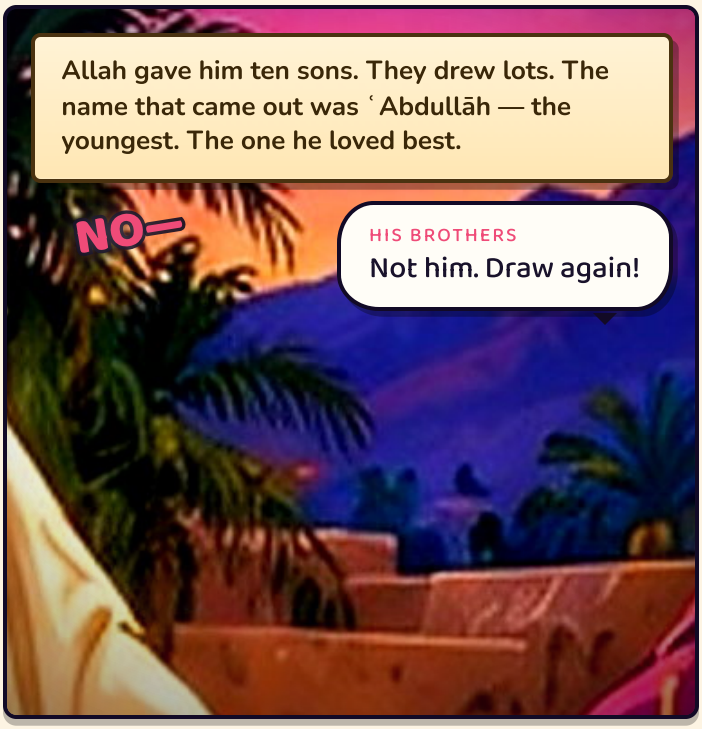
Allah can give back a blessing that everybody had given up on. And a blessing is for sharing: Zamzam went straight to the pilgrims.

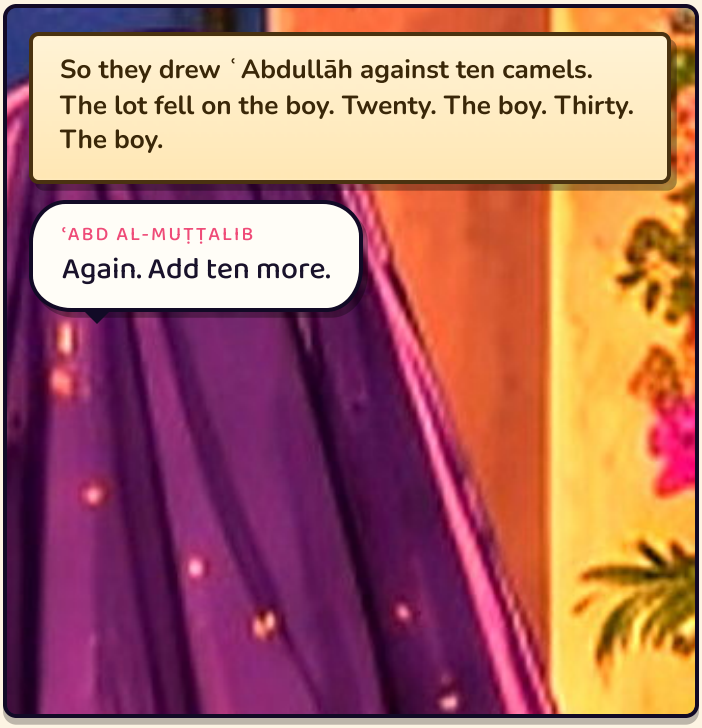
MAP 2 • STORY 4

ʿAbdullaẖ and Āminah

A promise and a hundred camels







STORY TREASURE

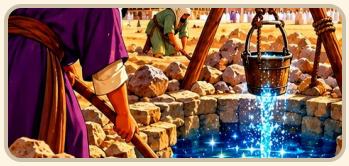
ʿAbdullāh lived. He married Āminah. And he died before his son was ever born.

THAT SAME YEAR, FAR TO THE SOUTH…

A king looked north at the crowds walking to a house he did not own — and decided to pull it down.

Map 2 Quest Check

The Prophet's Family



1. Whose line does the Prophet's family go back to?

- ○ Ismāʿīl, son of Ibrāhīm
- ○ The kings of Persia
- ○ The tribe of Thaqīf

2. Why was Hāshim given that name?

- ○ He crumbled bread for the pilgrims
- ○ He built a well
- ○ He led an army

3. Who had filled in the well of Zamzam?

- ○ The tribe of Jurhum
- ○ Quraysh
- ○ Abrahah

4. How many camels saved ʿAbdullaħ?

- ○ One hundred
- ○ Ten
- ○ Forty

THINK DEEPER

ʿAbd al-Muṭṭalib kept digging when his own son told him there was nothing there. When is that the right thing to do — and when is it just stubbornness?

YOUR TURN TO DRAW

Draw the moment the water breaks through — but light the picture from below, out of the hole in the ground, instead of from the sky.

MAP 3 · THE YEAR EVERYTHING CHANGED

The Year of the Elephant

Sixty thousand soldiers. One enormous elephant.
And a city that did not even try to fight.

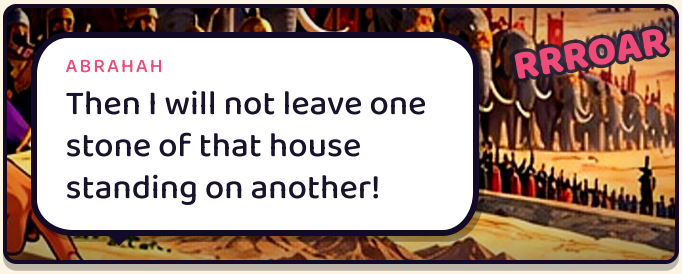
IN THIS MAP

1. Abrahah’s Plan
2. “The House Has a Lord”
3. The Elephant Who Would Not Walk
4. The Year of the Elephant

MAP 3 · STORY 1

Abrahah's Plan

Jealousy builds a church



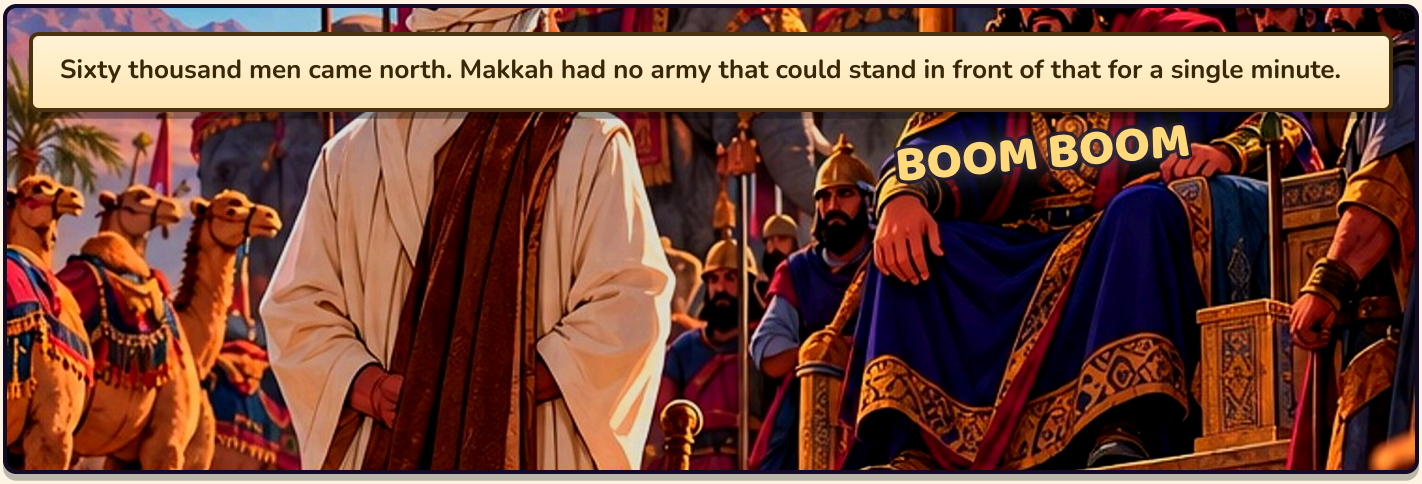
STORY TREASURE

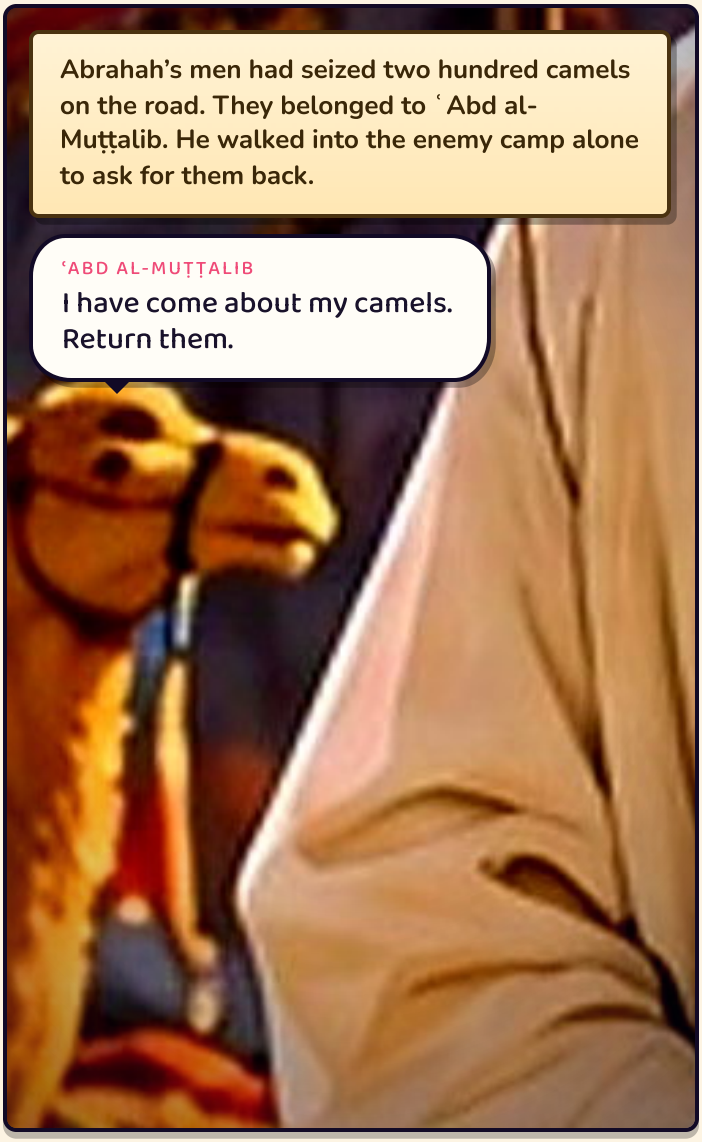
Jealousy pushes people to do things pride will not let them undo. Be glad when somebody else is blessed.

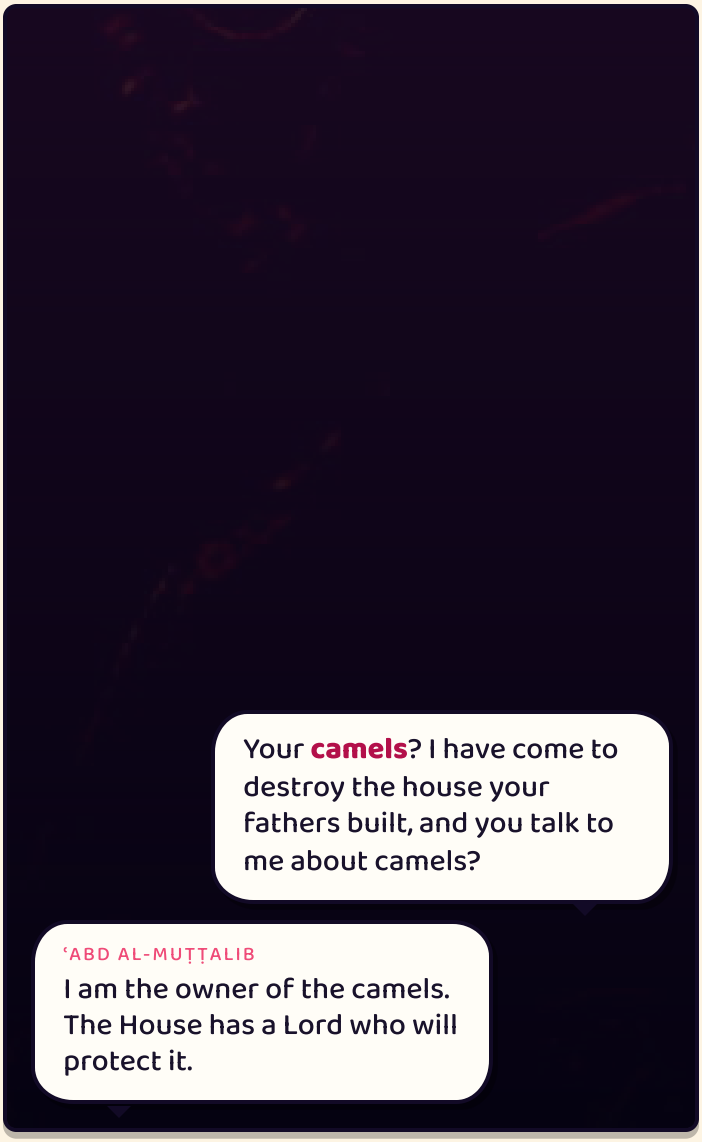
MAP 3 · STORY 2

“The House Has a Lord”

Trust, when nothing else is left







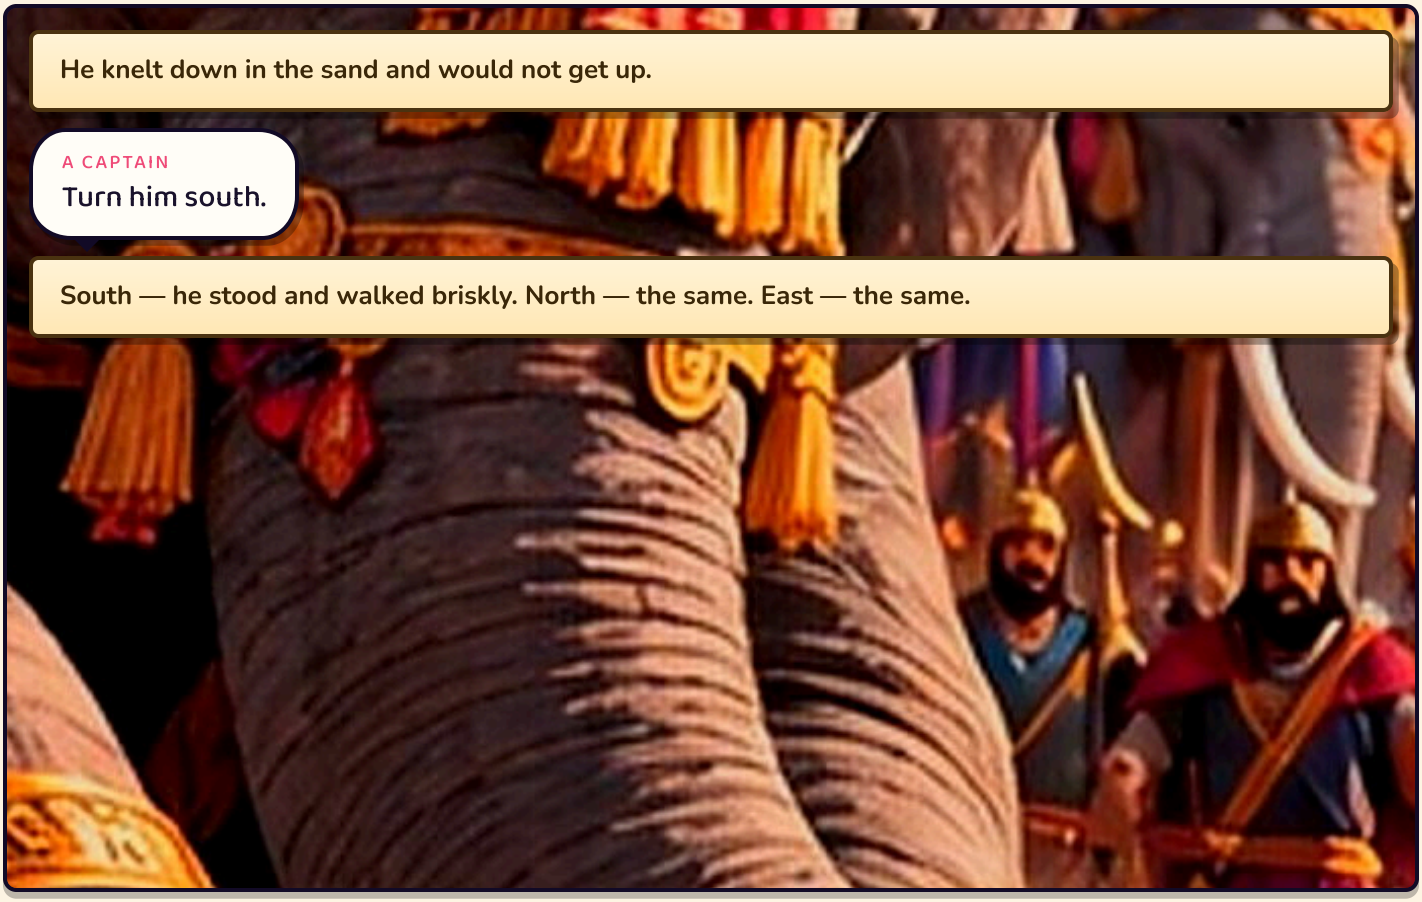
STORY TREASURE

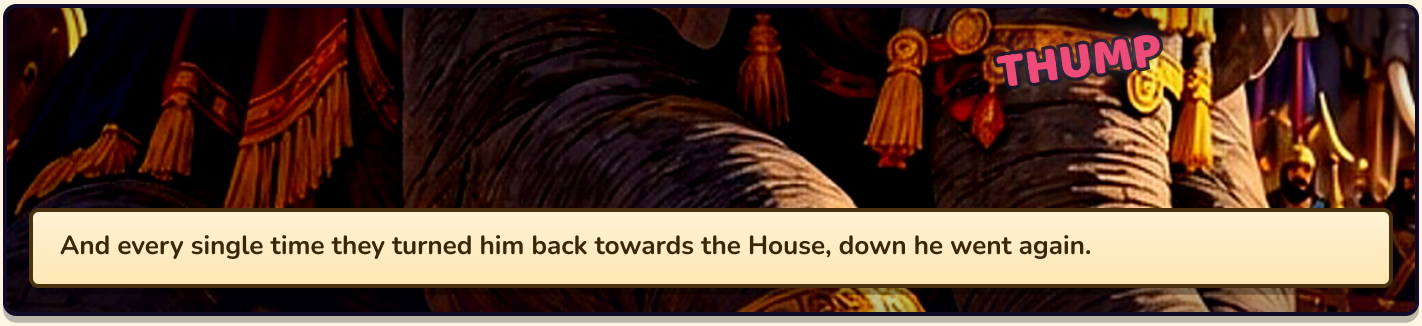
When something is far beyond your power, you hand it to the One whose power it is. That is not giving up. That is knowing who owns what.

MAP 3 · STORY 3

The Elephant Who Would Not Walk

Every creature obeys Allah



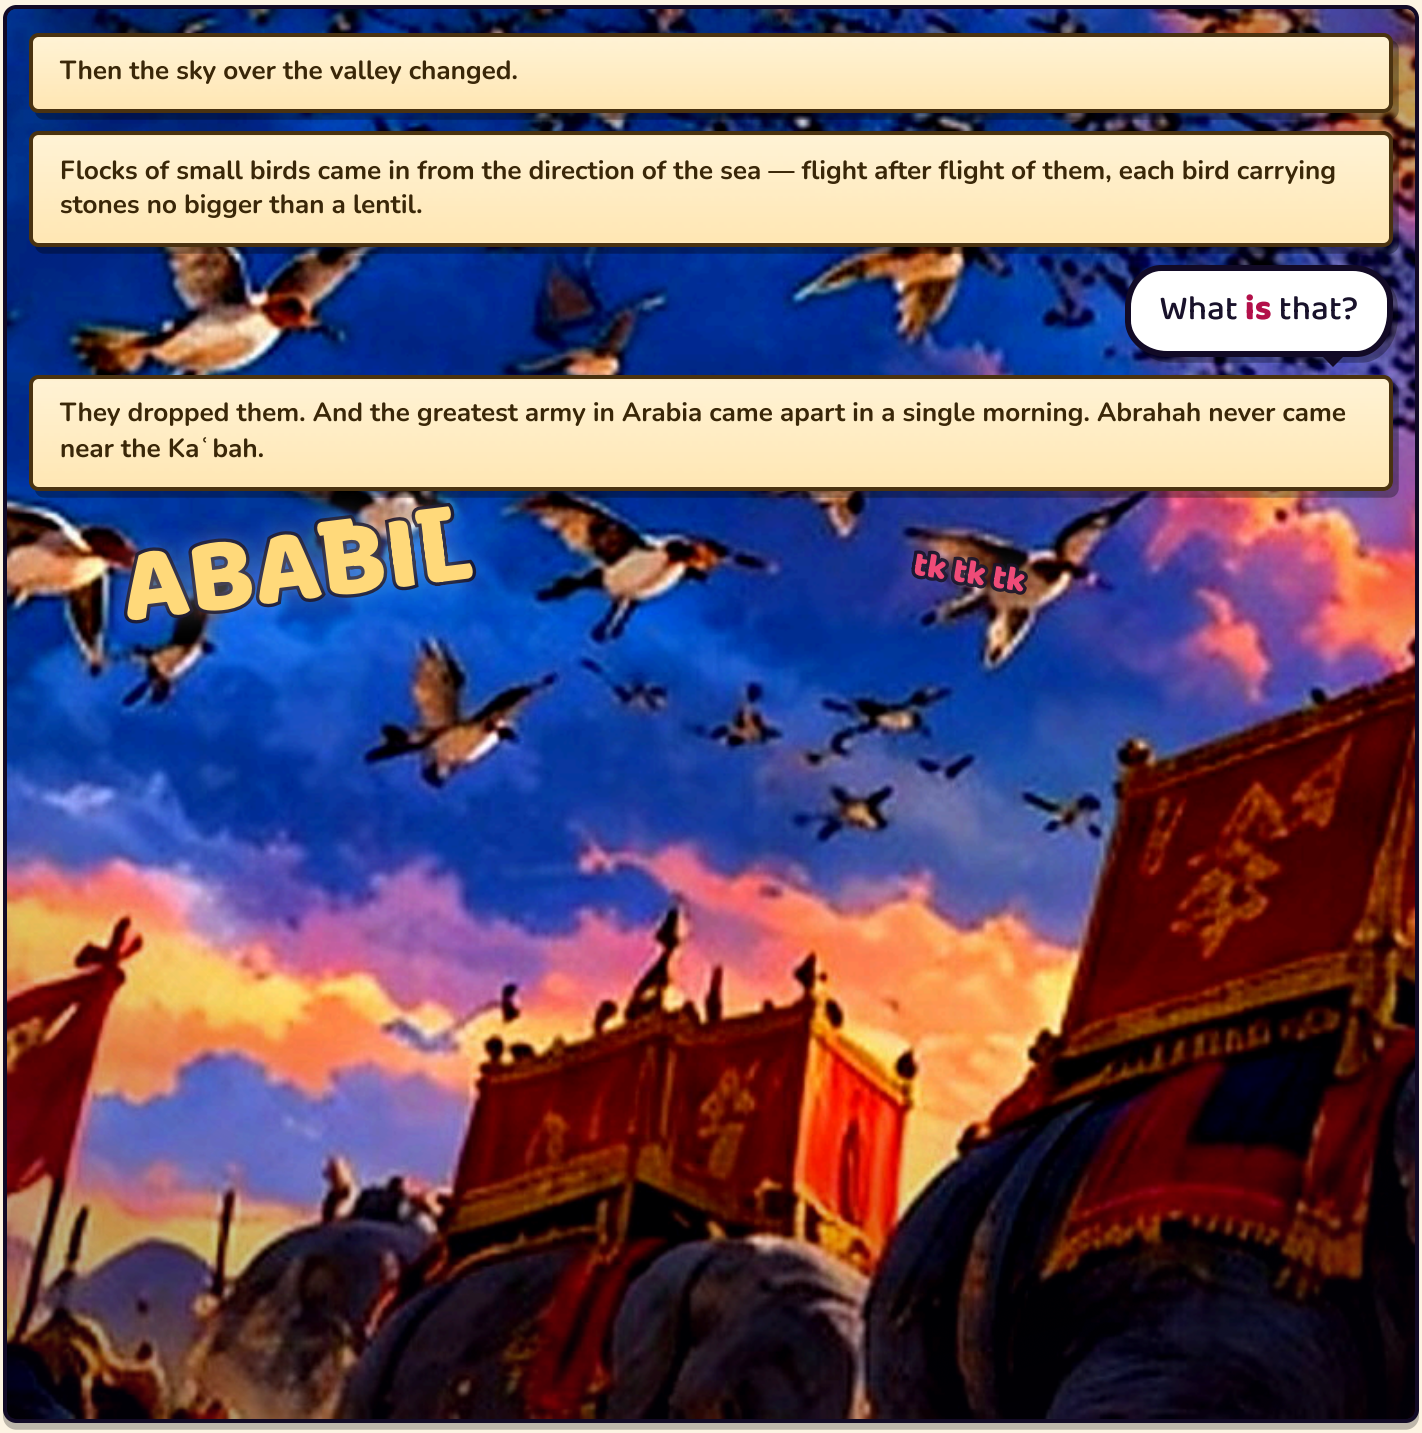


STORY TREASURE

Sixty thousand soldiers could not make one animal take one step in a direction Allah had not allowed.

The Year of the Elephant

Birds out of the sea



STORY TREASURE

Not lightning. Not an earthquake. Birds, carrying pebbles. The weapon was never the point — the One who sent it was.

FIFTY DAYS LATER, IN THAT SAME CITY…

A woman named Āminah gave birth to a boy. His father had already been dead for months.

Map 3 Quest Check

The Year of the Elephant

1. Why did Abrahah build his great church?

- ○ To turn the pilgrims away from the Kaʿbah
- ○ To thank Allah
- ○ To store grain

2. What did ʿAbd al-Muṭṭalib ask Abrahah for?

- ○ His camels
- ○ Gold
- ○ An army

3. Which way would the elephant not walk?

- ○ Towards the Kaʿbah
- ○ Towards the sea
- ○ Towards Yemen

4. What did Allah send against the army?

- ○ Flocks of birds with stones
- ○ A flood
- ○ A sandstorm

THINK DEEPER

ʿAbd al-Muṭṭalib asked only about his camels and left the Kaʿbah to Allah. Was that giving up, or was that trust? What is the difference?

YOUR TURN TO DRAW

Draw the elephant kneeling in the sand with the whole army behind him — and the tiny shape of the Kaʿbah far ahead. Leave the top third of your page almost empty. Something is about to come into it.

MAP 4 · THE ANSWER ARRIVES

A Blessed Birth

Every woman in Makkah was offered him.
Every single one of them said no.

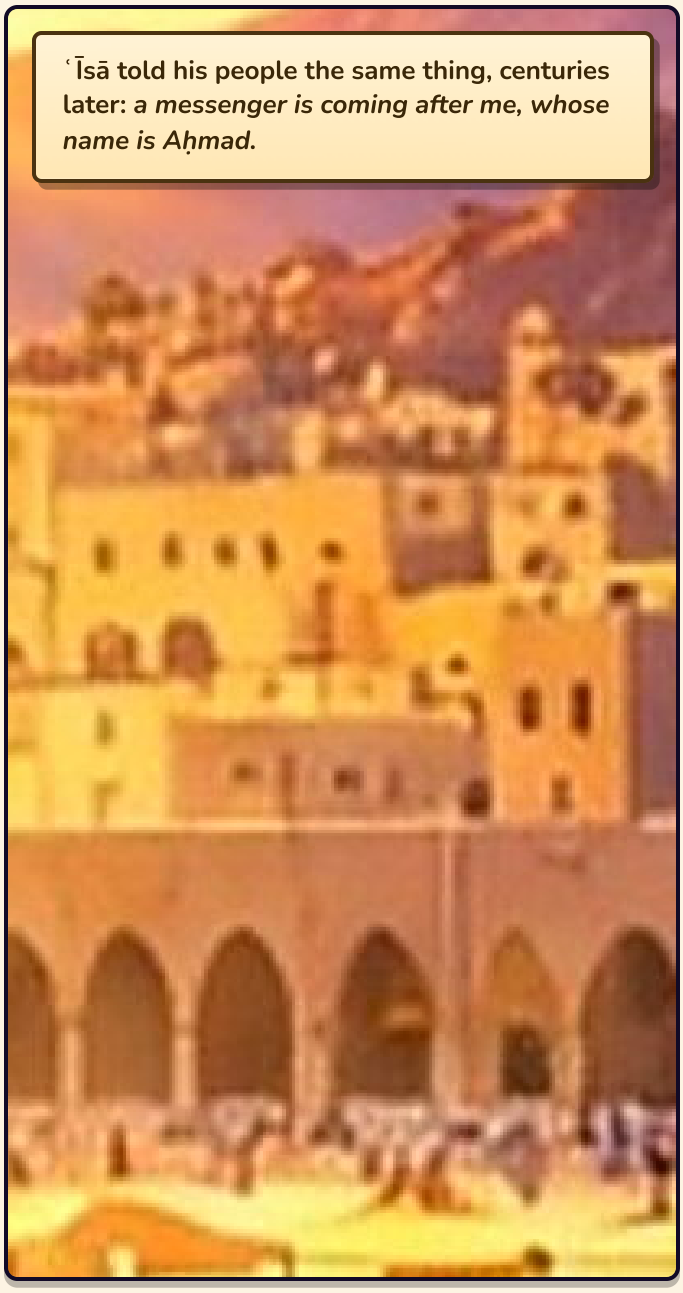
IN THIS MAP

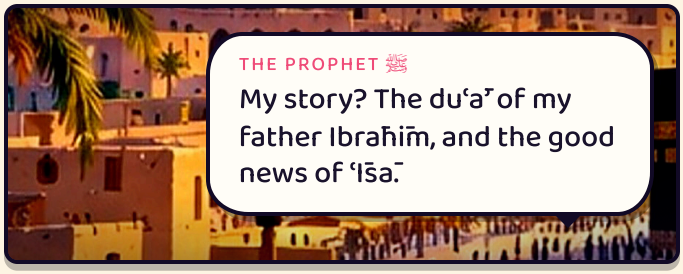
1. Good News Before His Birth
2. A Blessed Birth
3. Ḥalīmah's Blessed Journey
4. Out in the Desert

MAP 4 • STORY 1

Good News Before His Birth

A duʿāʾ answered centuries later





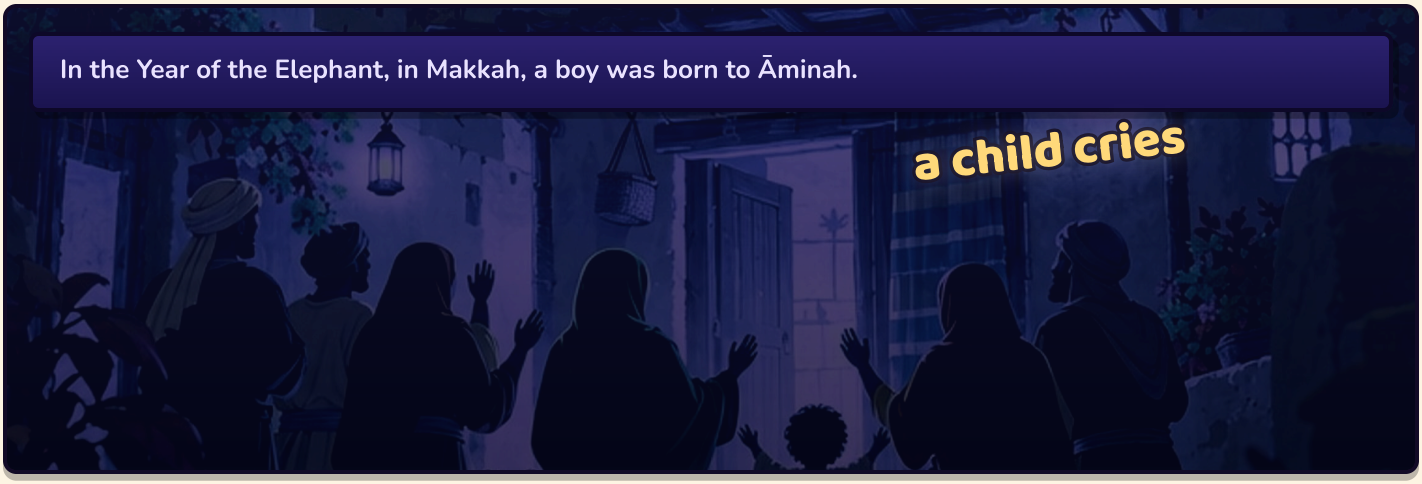
STORY TREASURE

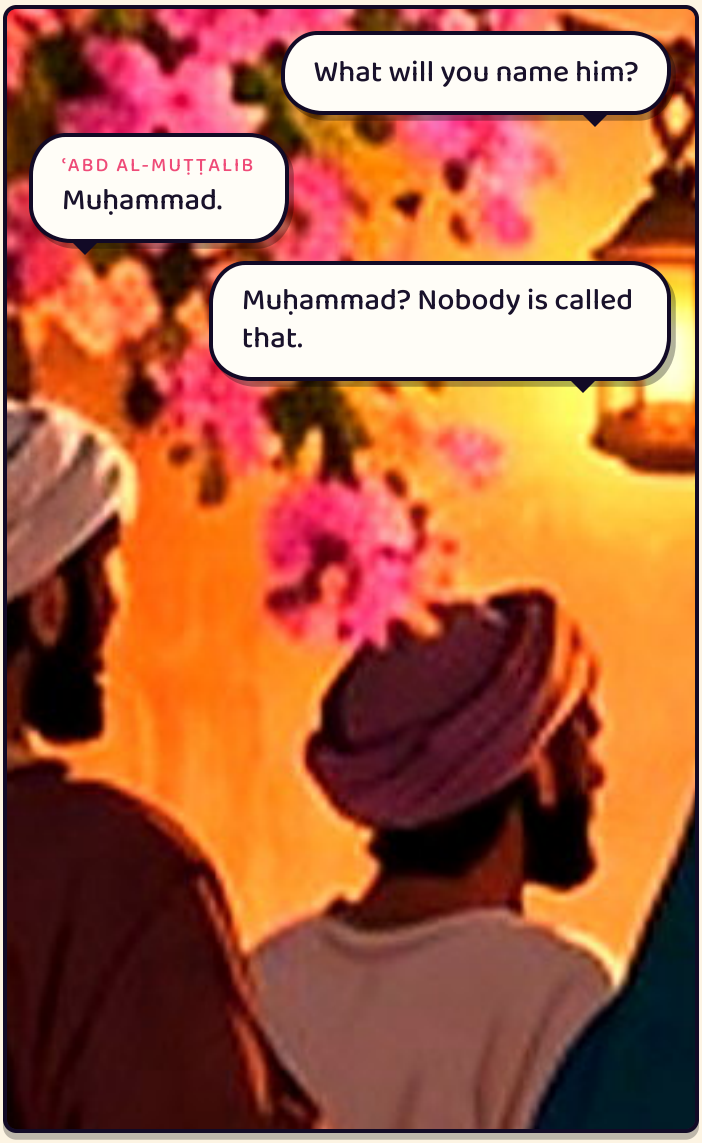
Ibrāhīm stood on the very ground where that duʿāʾ was answered. He never saw the answer. It came anyway.

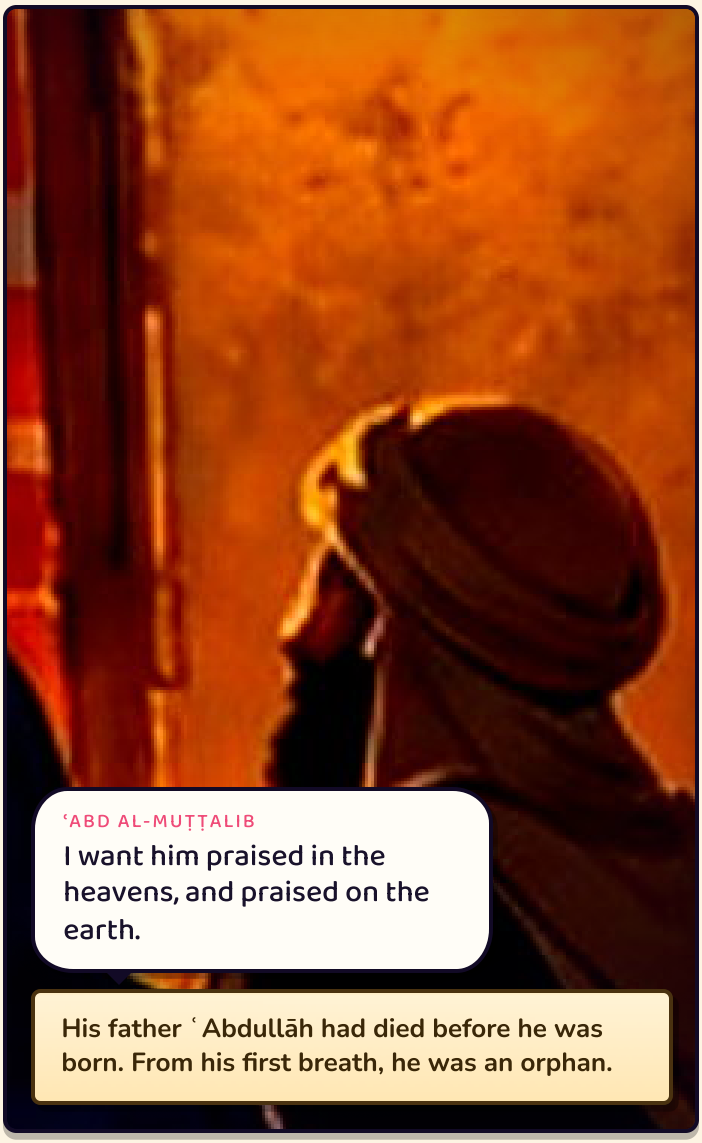
MAP 4 • STORY 2

A Blessed Birth

The praised one







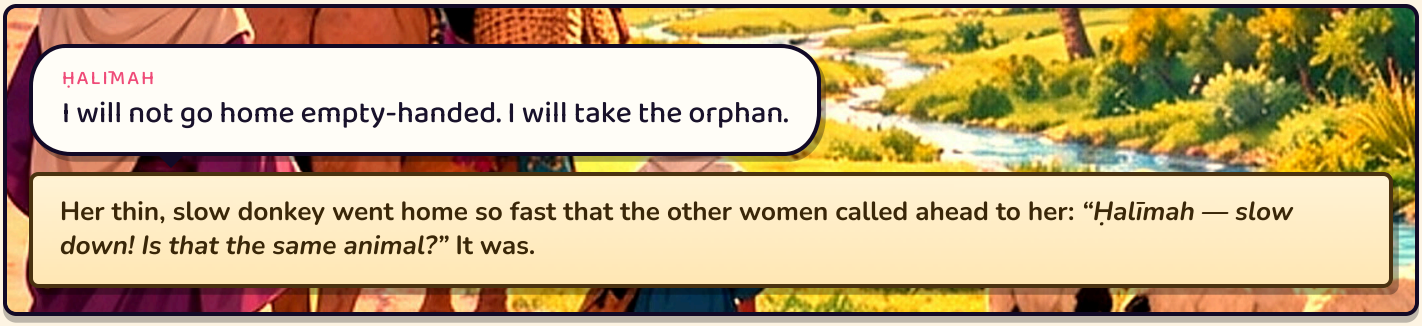
STORY TREASURE

He began life without a father — and Allah surrounded him with people who would love and guard him his whole life.

MAP 4 • STORY 3

Ḥalīmah's Blessed Journey

The woman who took the orphan



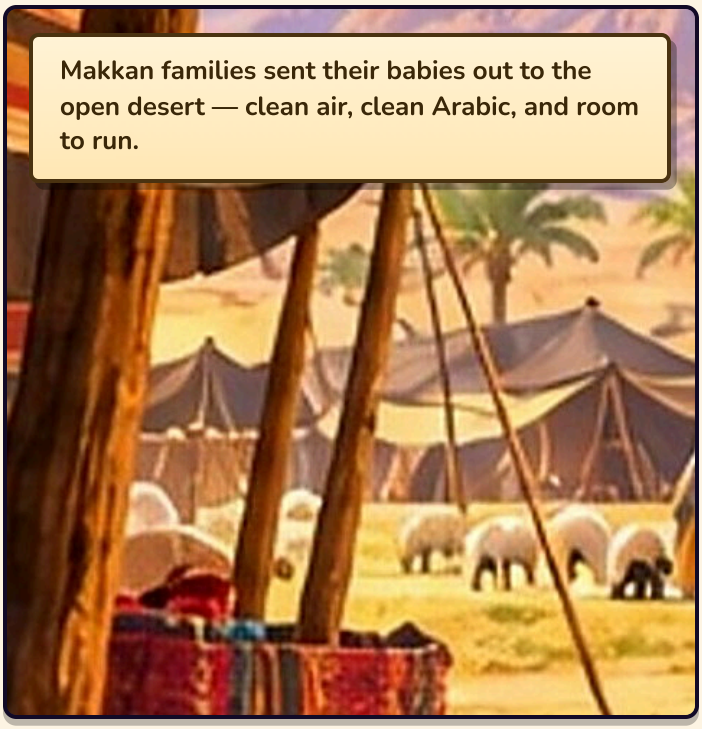
STORY TREASURE

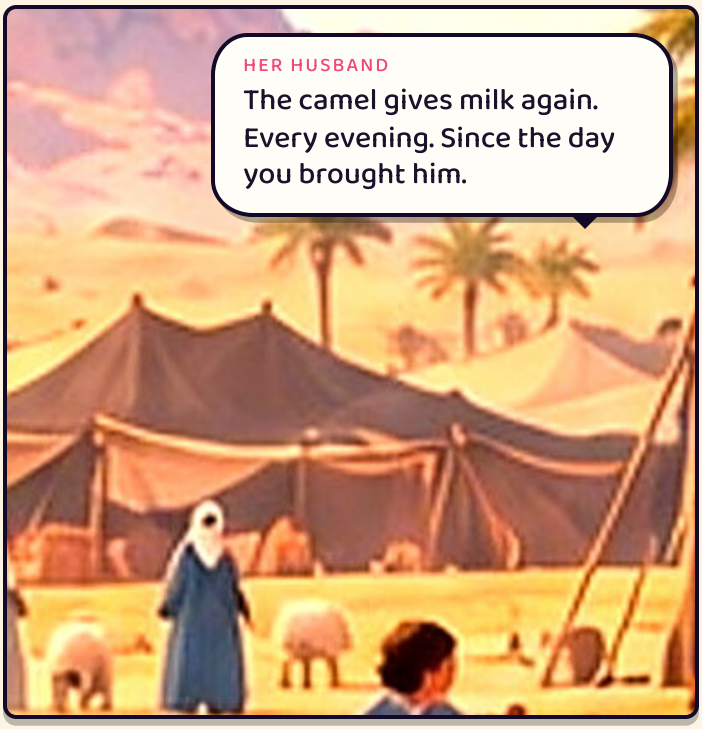
They were all looking for the child who would bring them something. The one they walked past was the one who brought everything.

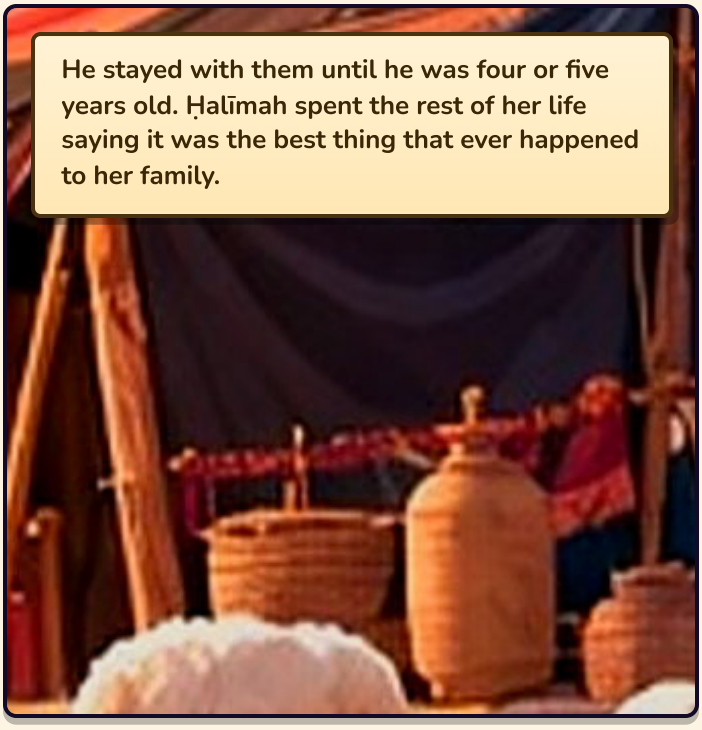
MAP 4 • STORY 4

Out in the Desert

Four years of blessing







STORY TREASURE

Kindness to one child, who could not pay her back with anything, changed a whole household.

OUT IN THAT DESERT, ONE ORDINARY AFTERNOON…

The children came running back to the tents white-faced, shouting that two men in white had taken their brother and opened his chest.

Map 4 Quest Check

A Blessed Birth

1. Who made duʿaʾ for a messenger to be sent?

- ○ Ibrāhīm and Ismāʿīl
- ○ Abrahah
- ○ Hāshim

2. In which city was he born?

- ○ Makkah
- ○ Yathrib
- ○ Ṭāʾif

3. Why did the other women refuse him?

- ○ He was an orphan
- ○ He was ill
- ○ He was too old

4. Who took him out to the desert?

- ○ Ḥalīmah as-Saʿdiyyah
- ○ Āminah
- ○ Ash-Shaymāʾ

THINK DEEPER

The other women were not cruel — they were poor and they needed paying. So why was Ḥalīmah's choice still different from theirs?

YOUR TURN TO DRAW

Draw two pictures side by side: Ḥalīmah's thin donkey trailing at the back of the caravan on the way in, and the same donkey out in front on the way home. Change nothing except the speed.

MAP 5 · THE SHEPHERD YEARS

Growing Up in Makkah

By the time he was eight he had buried his mother and his grandfather. By ten, he was working.

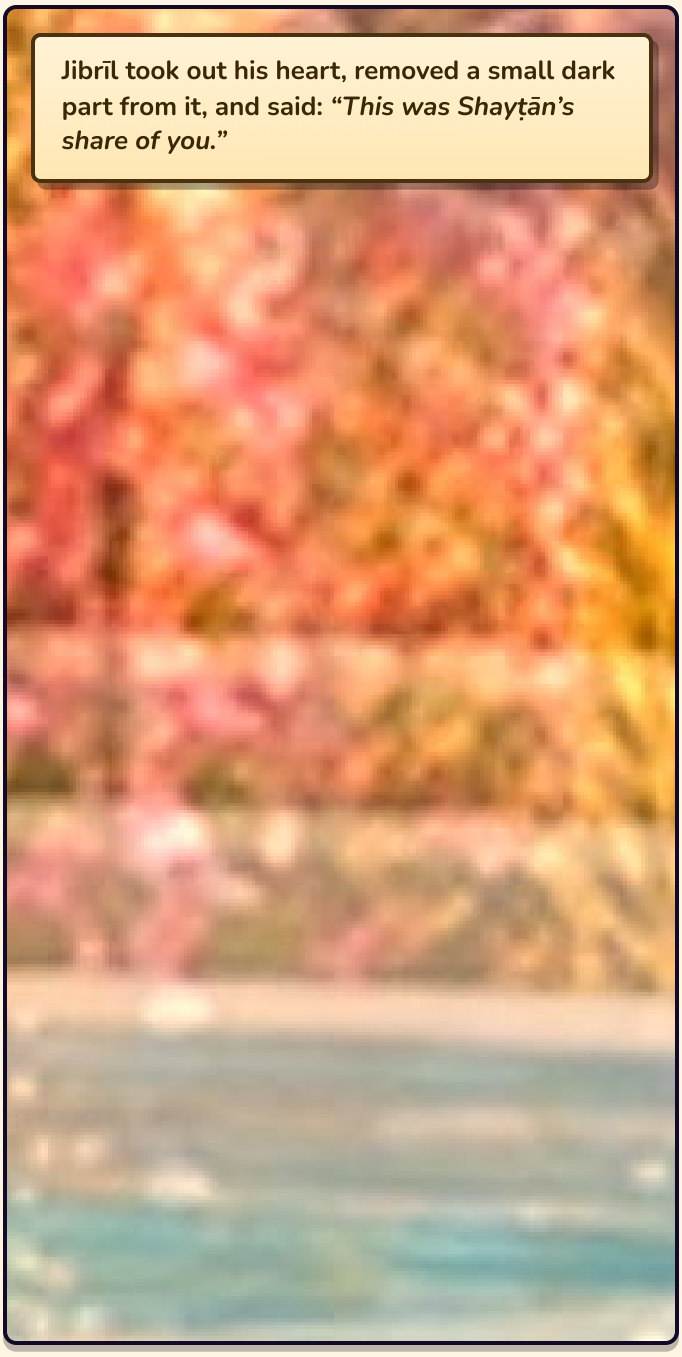
IN THIS MAP

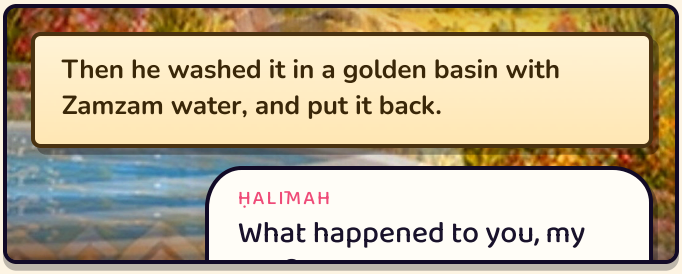
1. The Washing of the Heart
2. A Journey to Yathrib
3. Cared For and Loved
4. The Young Shepherd

MAP 5 · STORY 1

The Washing of the Heart

A heart made pure





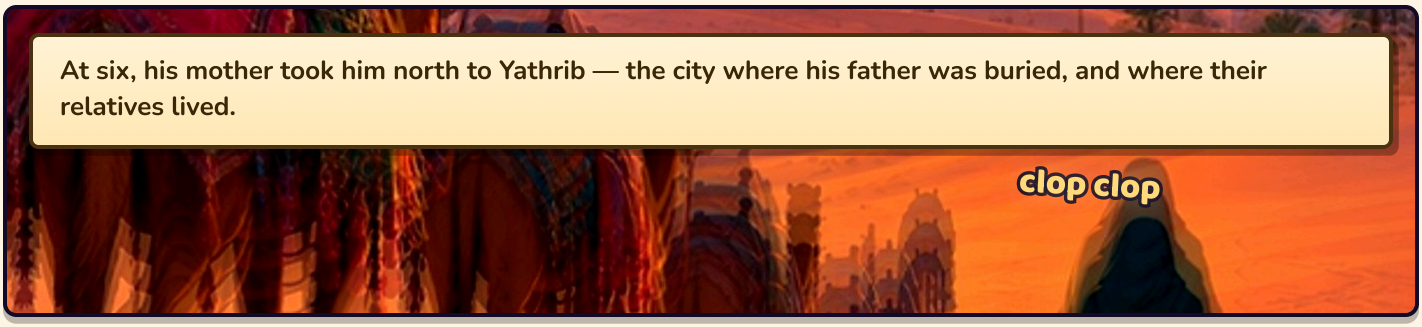
STORY TREASURE

Allah gave His Prophet a pure heart. We can ask Allah to purify ours too — and we should, every single day.

MAP 5 • STORY 2

A Journey to Yathrib

The road to al-Abwāʾ



AMINAH
That is where your father lies. Say salām to him.

On the road home, at a place called al-Abwāʾ, his mother fell ill and died.

He was six years old, standing beside the grave of the only parent he had ever known.

STORY TREASURE

Years later, as a Prophet, he passed that grave again — and he wept, and everybody around him wept with him.

MAP 5 · STORY 3

Cared For and Loved

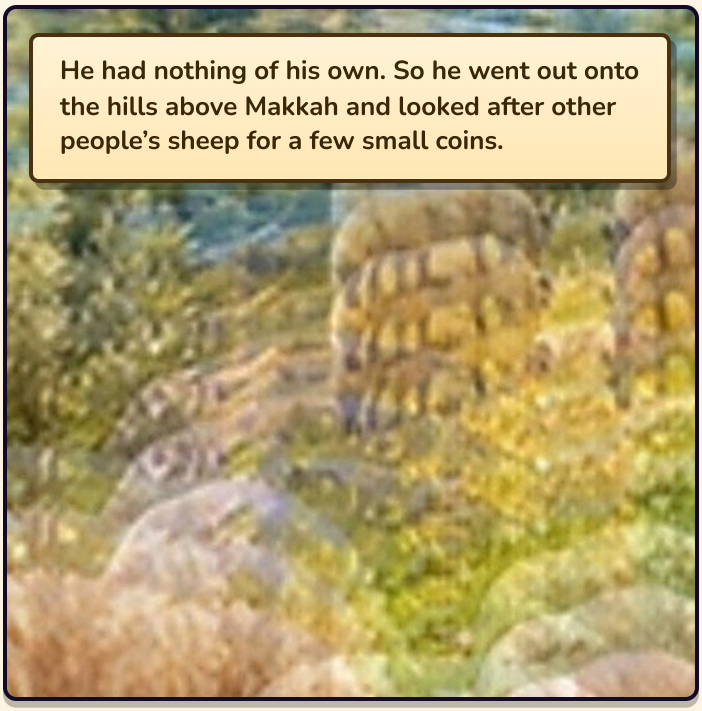
Grandfather, then uncle

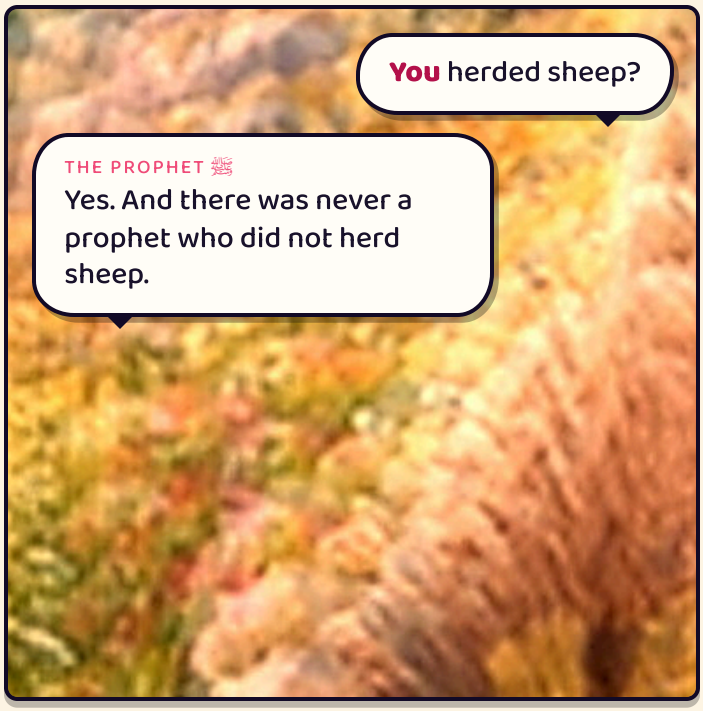
STORY TREASURE

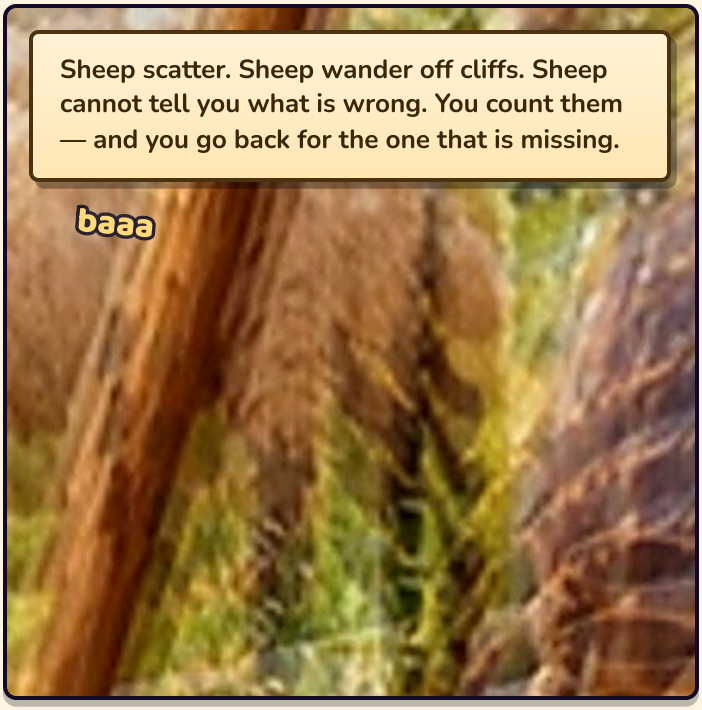
He never forgot a single one of them. He spoke about his mother, his grandfather and his uncle with love for the rest of his life.

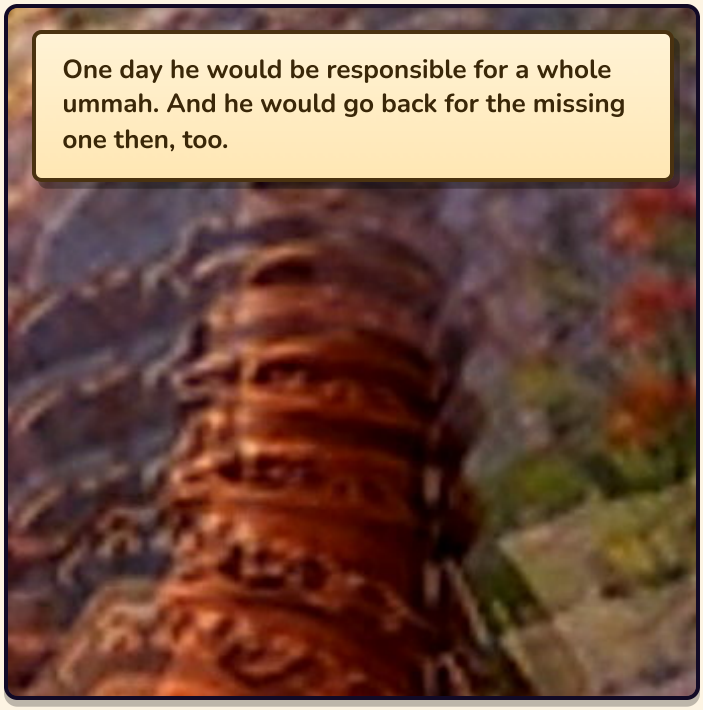
The Young Shepherd

Patience on the hills









STORY TREASURE

A small, humble job can be the exact training you need for something enormous you cannot see coming.

AT TWELVE, ON THE ROAD NORTH TO SHAM…

A Christian monk who had never once come out to greet a caravan came out, walked down the line, and took a boy by the hand.

Map 5 Quest Check

Growing Up in Makkah

1. Which angel came to him as a child?

- ○ Jibrīl
- ○ Isrāfīl
- ○ Mīkā ʾīl

2. How old was he when his mother died?

- ○ Six years old
- ○ Ten years old
- ○ Two years old

3. Who took care of him after his grandfather?

- ○ His uncle Abū Ṭālib
- ○ Ḥalīmah
- ○ Waraqah

4. What work did he do as a boy?

- ○ He looked after sheep
- ○ He built houses
- ○ He sailed ships

THINK DEEPER

He lost his father, his mother and his grandfather before he was nine. Why do you think Allah chose that beginning for him?

YOUR TURN TO DRAW

Draw a boy's long shadow on a hillside at the end of the day, sheep scattered around him, and Makkah tiny in the valley below. Draw him from behind — never his face.

MAP 6 • AL-AMĪN

A Young Man of Honour

A whole city that agreed on almost nothing agreed on this one thing about him.

IN THIS MAP

1. The Monk Baḥīrā
2. Protected by Allah
3. The Pact of Fairness
4. The Trustworthy One

The Monk Baḥīrā

Recognised on the road

Caravans had passed Baḥīrā's monastery for years. He had never once come out. This time he came out, and laid a meal, and called them all in.

BAḤĪRĀ
Come down. All of you. Nobody stays with the camels today.

shhh...

BAḤĪRĀ
Is this everybody?

All but the boy. We left him minding the baggage.

BAḤĪRĀ
Send for him.

He took the boy by the hand. "This is the master of the worlds. Allah will send him as a

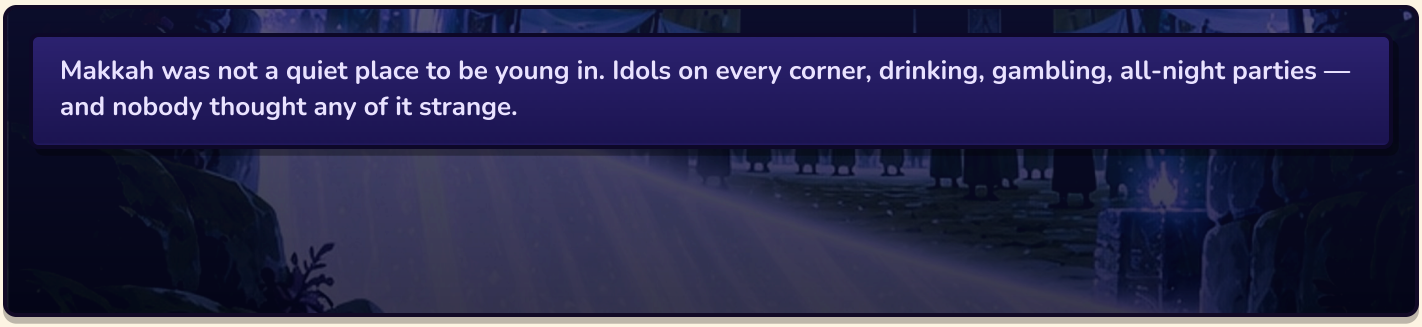
STORY TREASURE

People with real knowledge recognise the truth the moment they see it. Baḥīrā had read the old scriptures, and he knew.

MAP 6 · STORY 2

Protected by Allah

Twice, and only twice

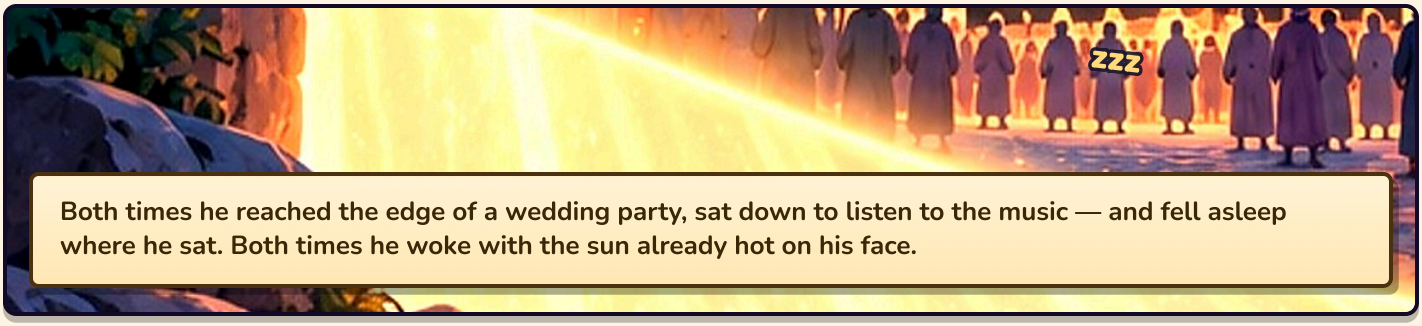


Makkah was not a quiet place to be young in. Idols on every corner, drinking, gambling, all-night parties — and nobody thought any of it strange.

He never bowed to an idol. Not once, in forty years. He told his companions that only twice in his whole youth did he feel the pull of it.

THE YOUNG AL-AMIN

Watch my sheep tonight. I am going down into the town.



Both times he reached the edge of a wedding party, sat down to listen to the music — and fell asleep where he sat. Both times he woke with the sun already hot on his face.

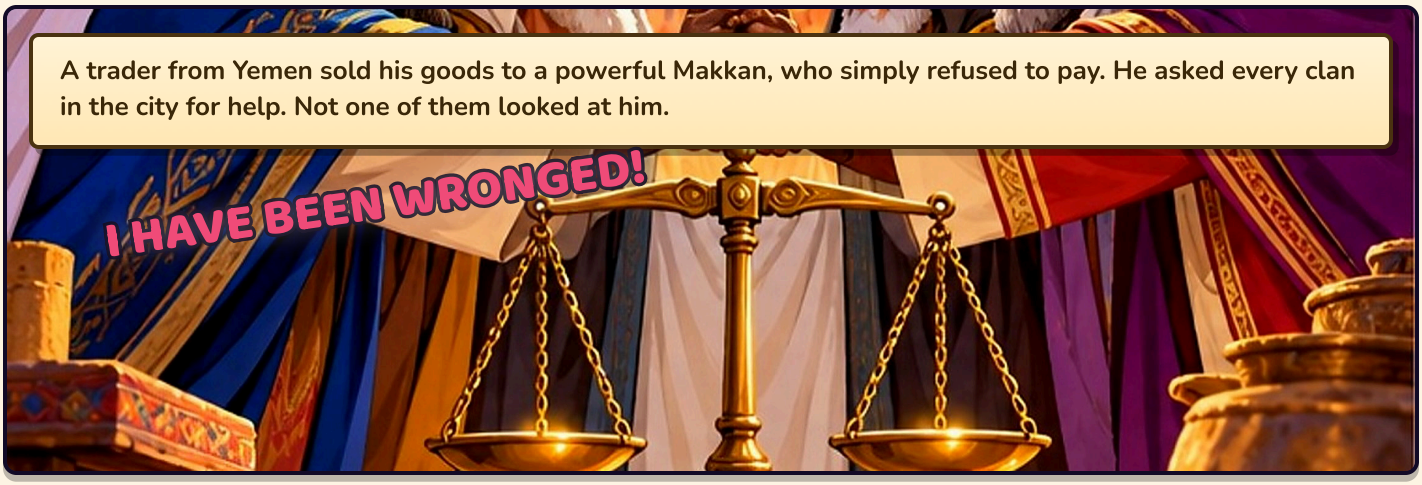
STORY TREASURE

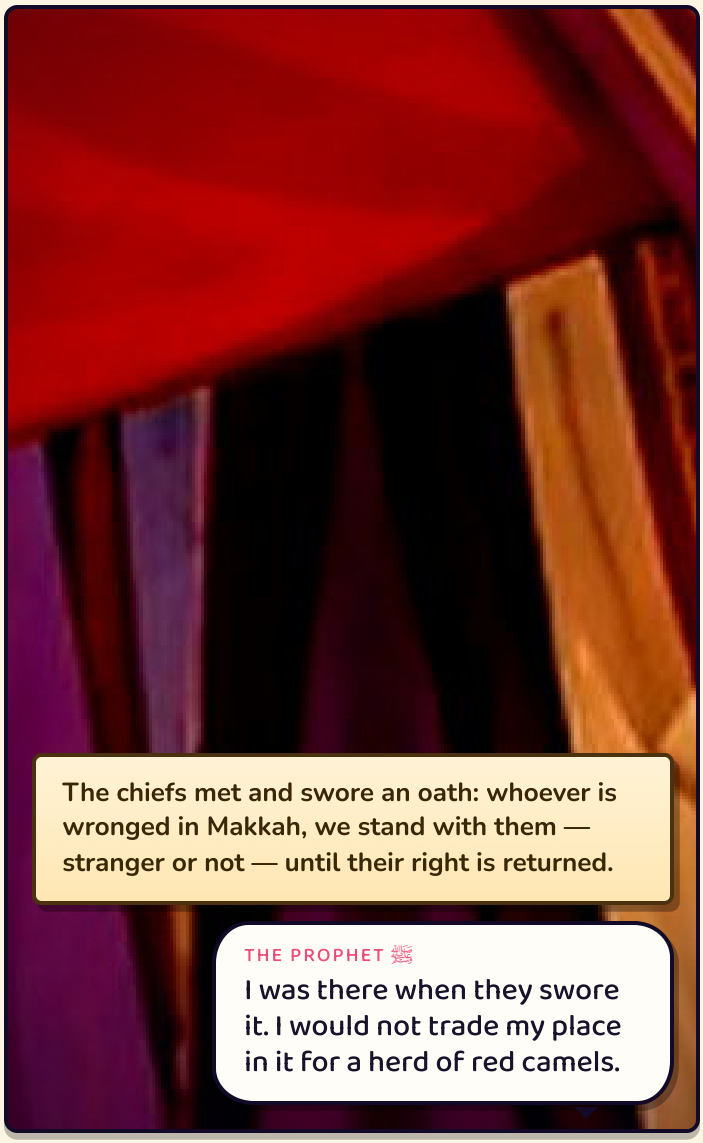
Stay away from the places and the habits that harm the heart — and ask Allah to keep you away from them too.

MAP 6 • STORY 3

The Pact of Fairness

Ḥilf al-Fuḍūl





STORY TREASURE

Those men were not Muslims, and he praised what they did for the rest of his life. Justice is justice, whoever does it.

The Trustworthy One

A name the city gave him

STORY TREASURE

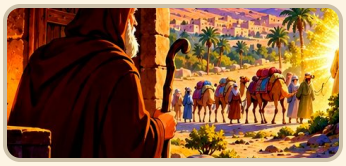
Before anybody believed a word he said, they already trusted him completely. The good name came first. It had to.

A WEALTHY MERCHANT HAD BEEN HEARING HIS NAME…

She had turned down the most powerful men in Makkah. Then she sent her servant to travel beside this one — and watch how he behaved when he thought nobody was looking.

Map 6 Quest Check

A Young Man of Honour



1. Who took him on the journey to Shaām?

- ○ His uncle Abū Ṭālib
- ○ Khadījah
- ○ Zayd

2. Did he ever bow to an idol?

- ○ No, never
- ○ Once, as a child
- ○ Only at festivals

3. Why was Ḥilf al-Fuḍul sworn?

- ○ A powerful man refused to pay a stranger
- ○ To start a war
- ○ To choose a king

4. What name did Makkah give him?

- ○ Al-Amīn, the Trustworthy
- ○ Al-Fāris
- ○ Al-Ḥākim

THINK DEEPER

He went towards that party twice, and was stopped both times. What stops you, when you are about to do something you know is wrong?

YOUR TURN TO DRAW

Draw a lone figure on a rock above the sleeping city at dawn, hands cupped round his mouth. Show the sound travelling out over the rooftops — and open three windows below, not thirty.

MAP 7 · THE CARAVAN NORTH

Trade and Marriage

She did not ask what he owned.
She asked what he was like on the road.

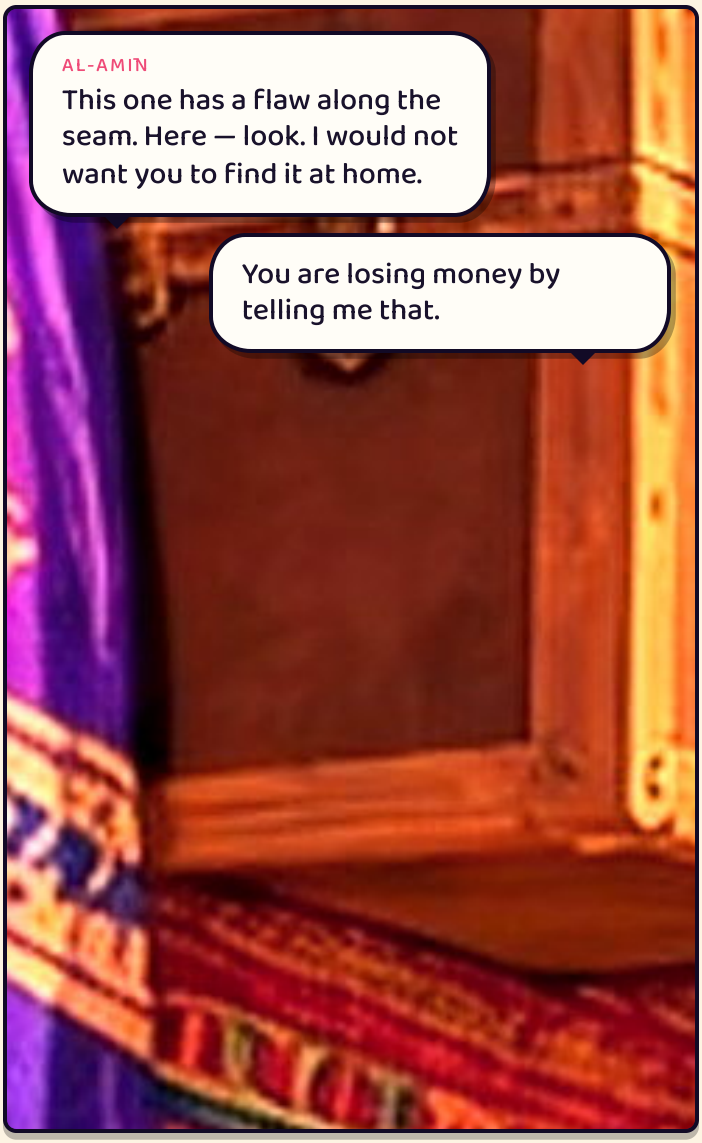
IN THIS MAP

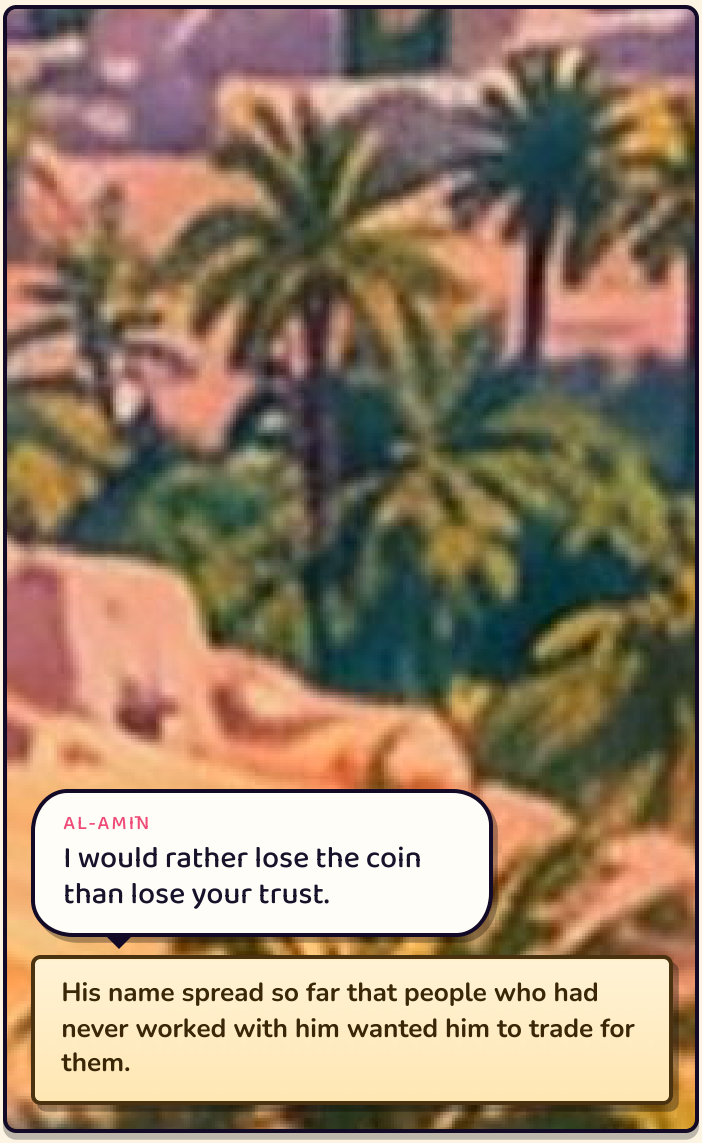
1. The Honest Trader
2. Maysarah's Report
3. Khadījah
4. Zayd Chooses to Stay

MAP 7 · STORY 1

The Honest Trader

Weighing it true



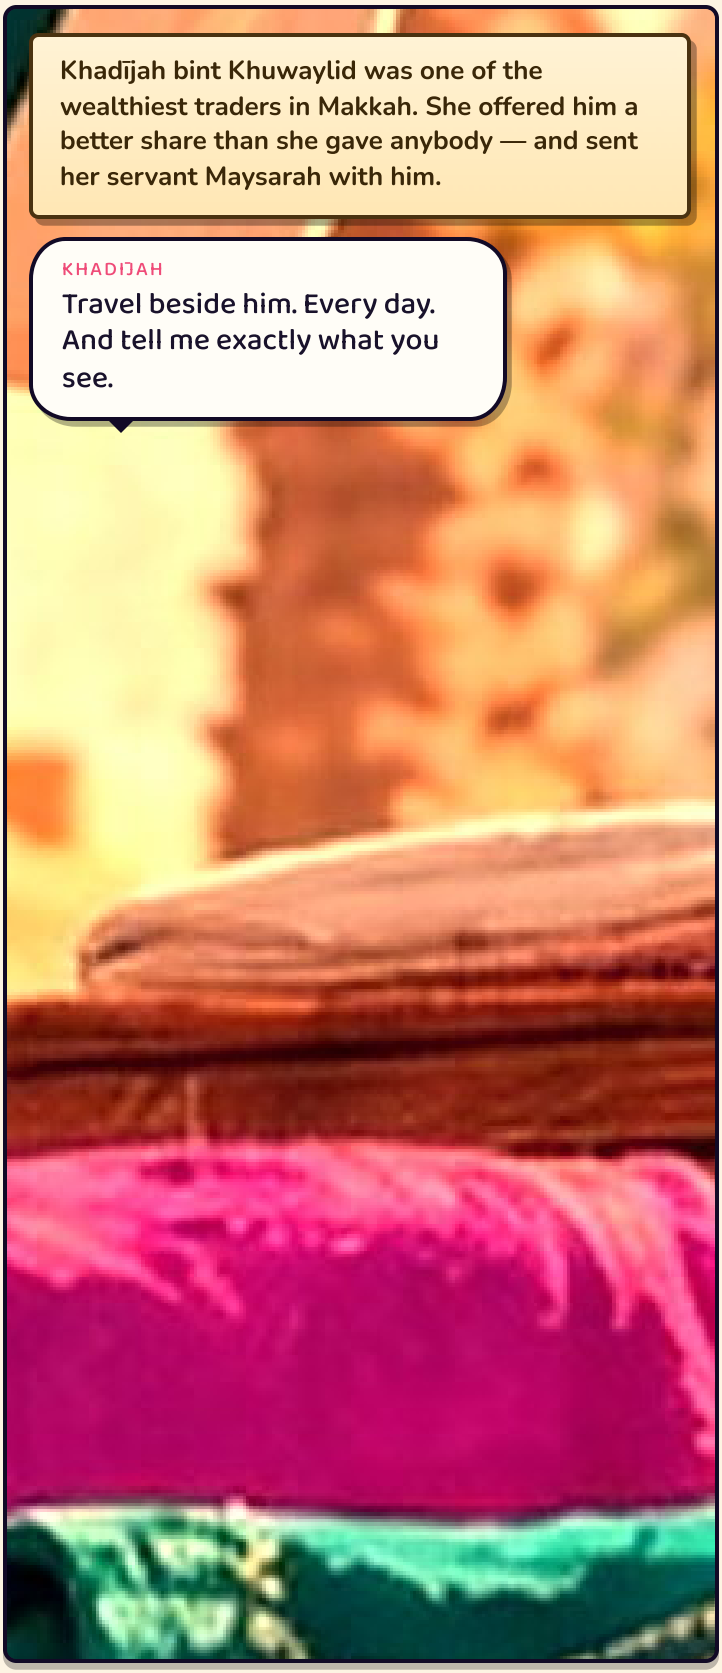


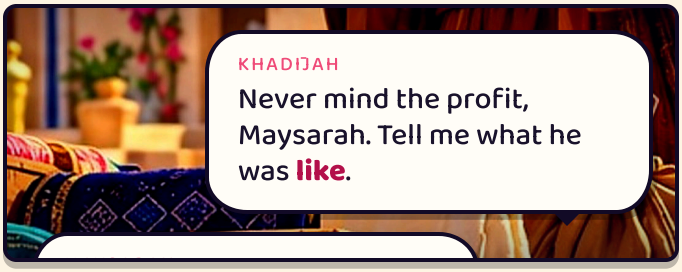
STORY TREASURE

Being fair in small things — a weight, a price, a seam in the cloth — matters to Allah more than most people think.

Maysarah's Report

Watched for a whole journey





STORY TREASURE

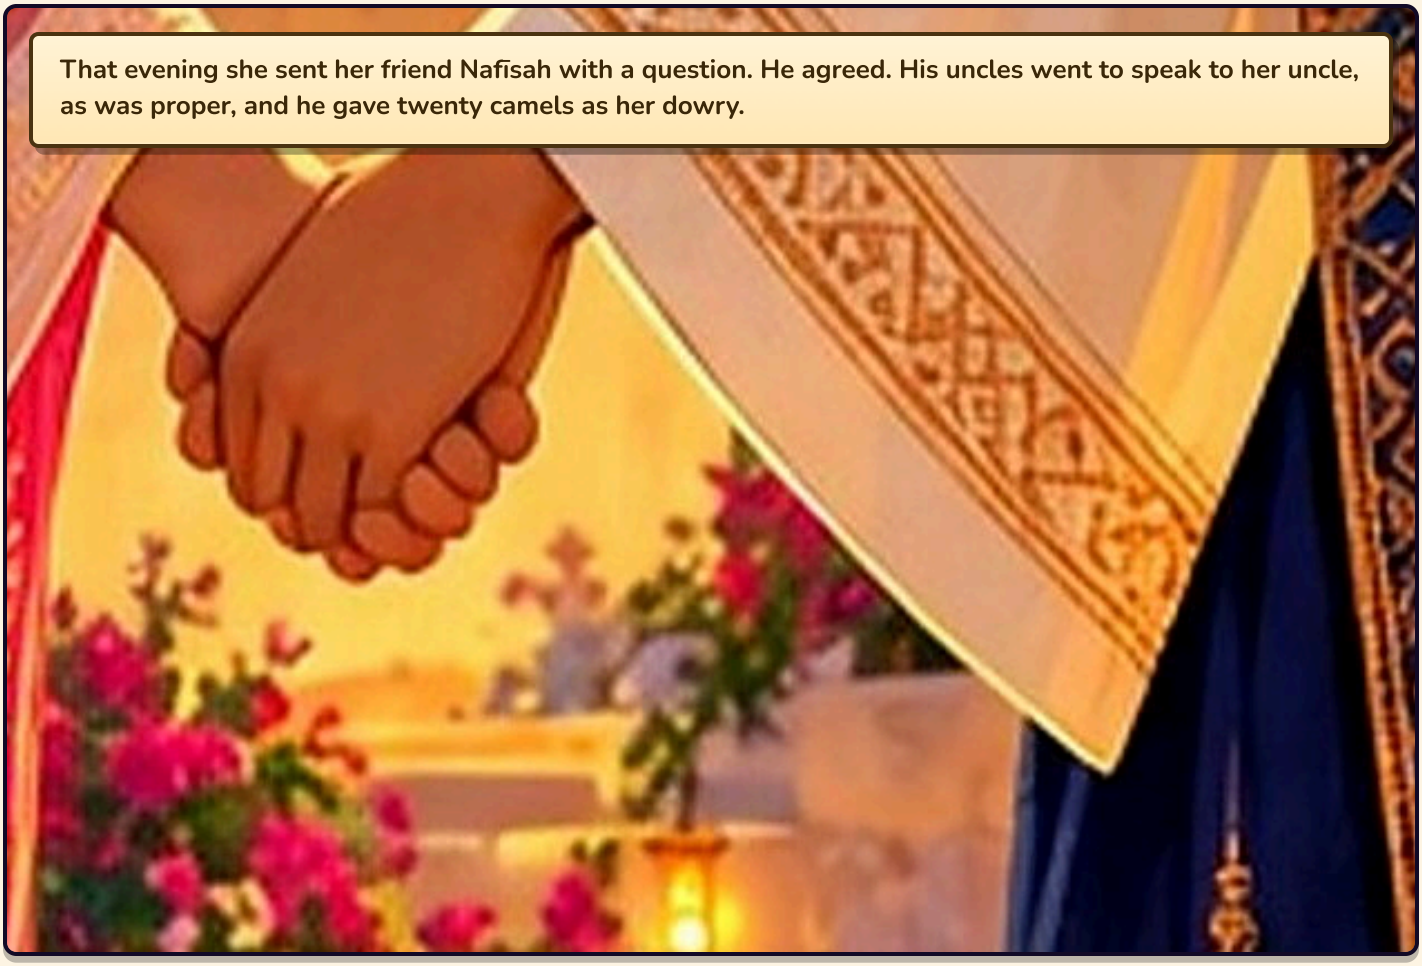
Good manners when nobody is checking are the only ones that tell you who a person really is.

MAP 7 · STORY 3

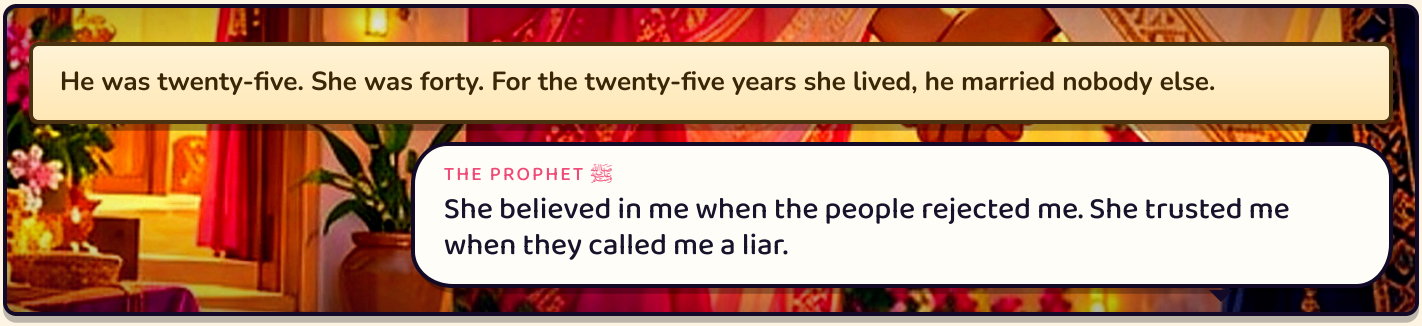
Khadījah

A marriage of character

Many important men had asked to marry Khadījah. She had said no to every one of them.



That evening she sent her friend Nafīsah with a question. He agreed. His uncles went to speak to her uncle, as was proper, and he gave twenty camels as her dowry.



He was twenty-five. She was forty. For the twenty-five years she lived, he married nobody else.

THE PROPHET ﷺ

She believed in me when the people rejected me. She trusted me when they called me a liar.

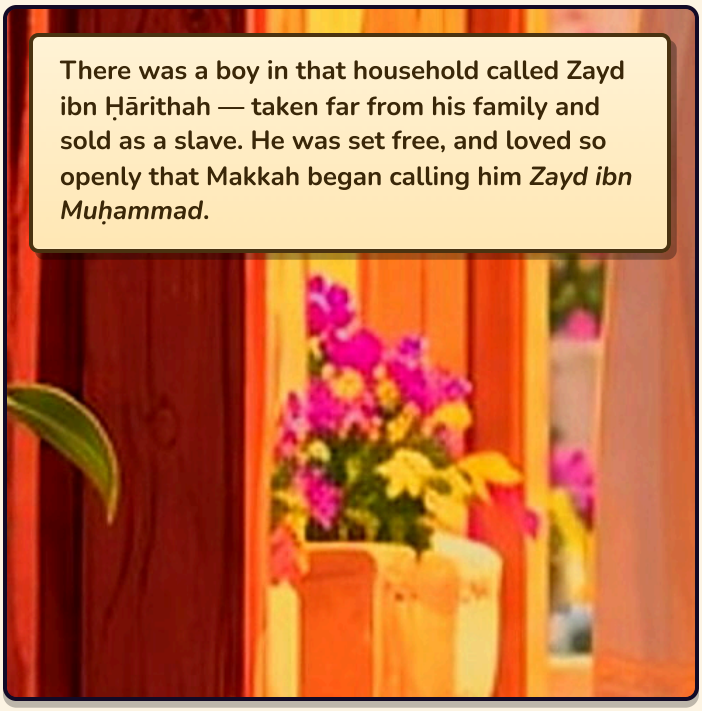
STORY TREASURE

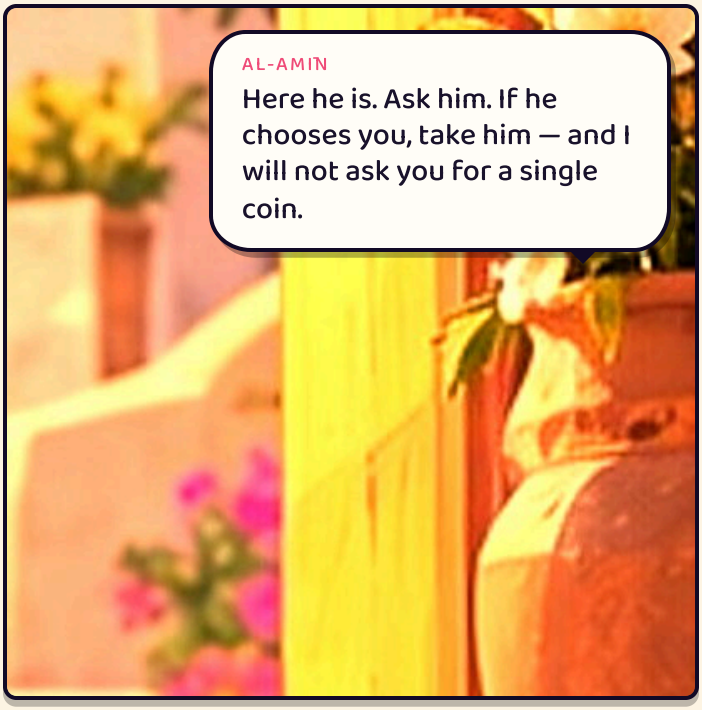
She chose him for his character, not his wealth or his family. It turned out to be the best decision anybody in Makkah made that year.

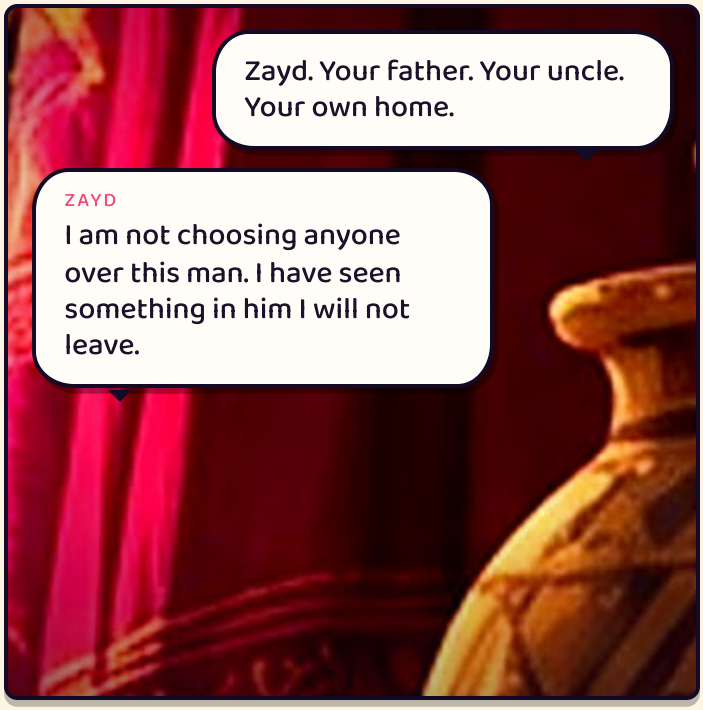
MAP 7 · STORY 4

Zayd Chooses to Stay

A boy who would not leave







STORY TREASURE

He was given a free choice and a clear road home, and he stayed. Good character wins hearts that nothing else can reach.

THEN HE TURNED THIRTY-FIVE, AND A FLOOD CAME…

The Kaʻbah had to be rebuilt. And when the time came to lift one black stone back into the wall, the chiefs of Makkah very nearly drew their swords over it.

Map 7 Quest Check

Trade and Marriage

1. Where did the summer caravan go?

- ○ North to Shām
- ○ South to Yemen
- ○ East to Persia

2. Who watched him on the journey?

- ○ Her servant Maysarah
- ○ His uncle
- ○ Zayd

3. What did Khadījah ask about first?

- ○ His character
- ○ His family
- ○ His money

4. What did Makkah call Zayd?

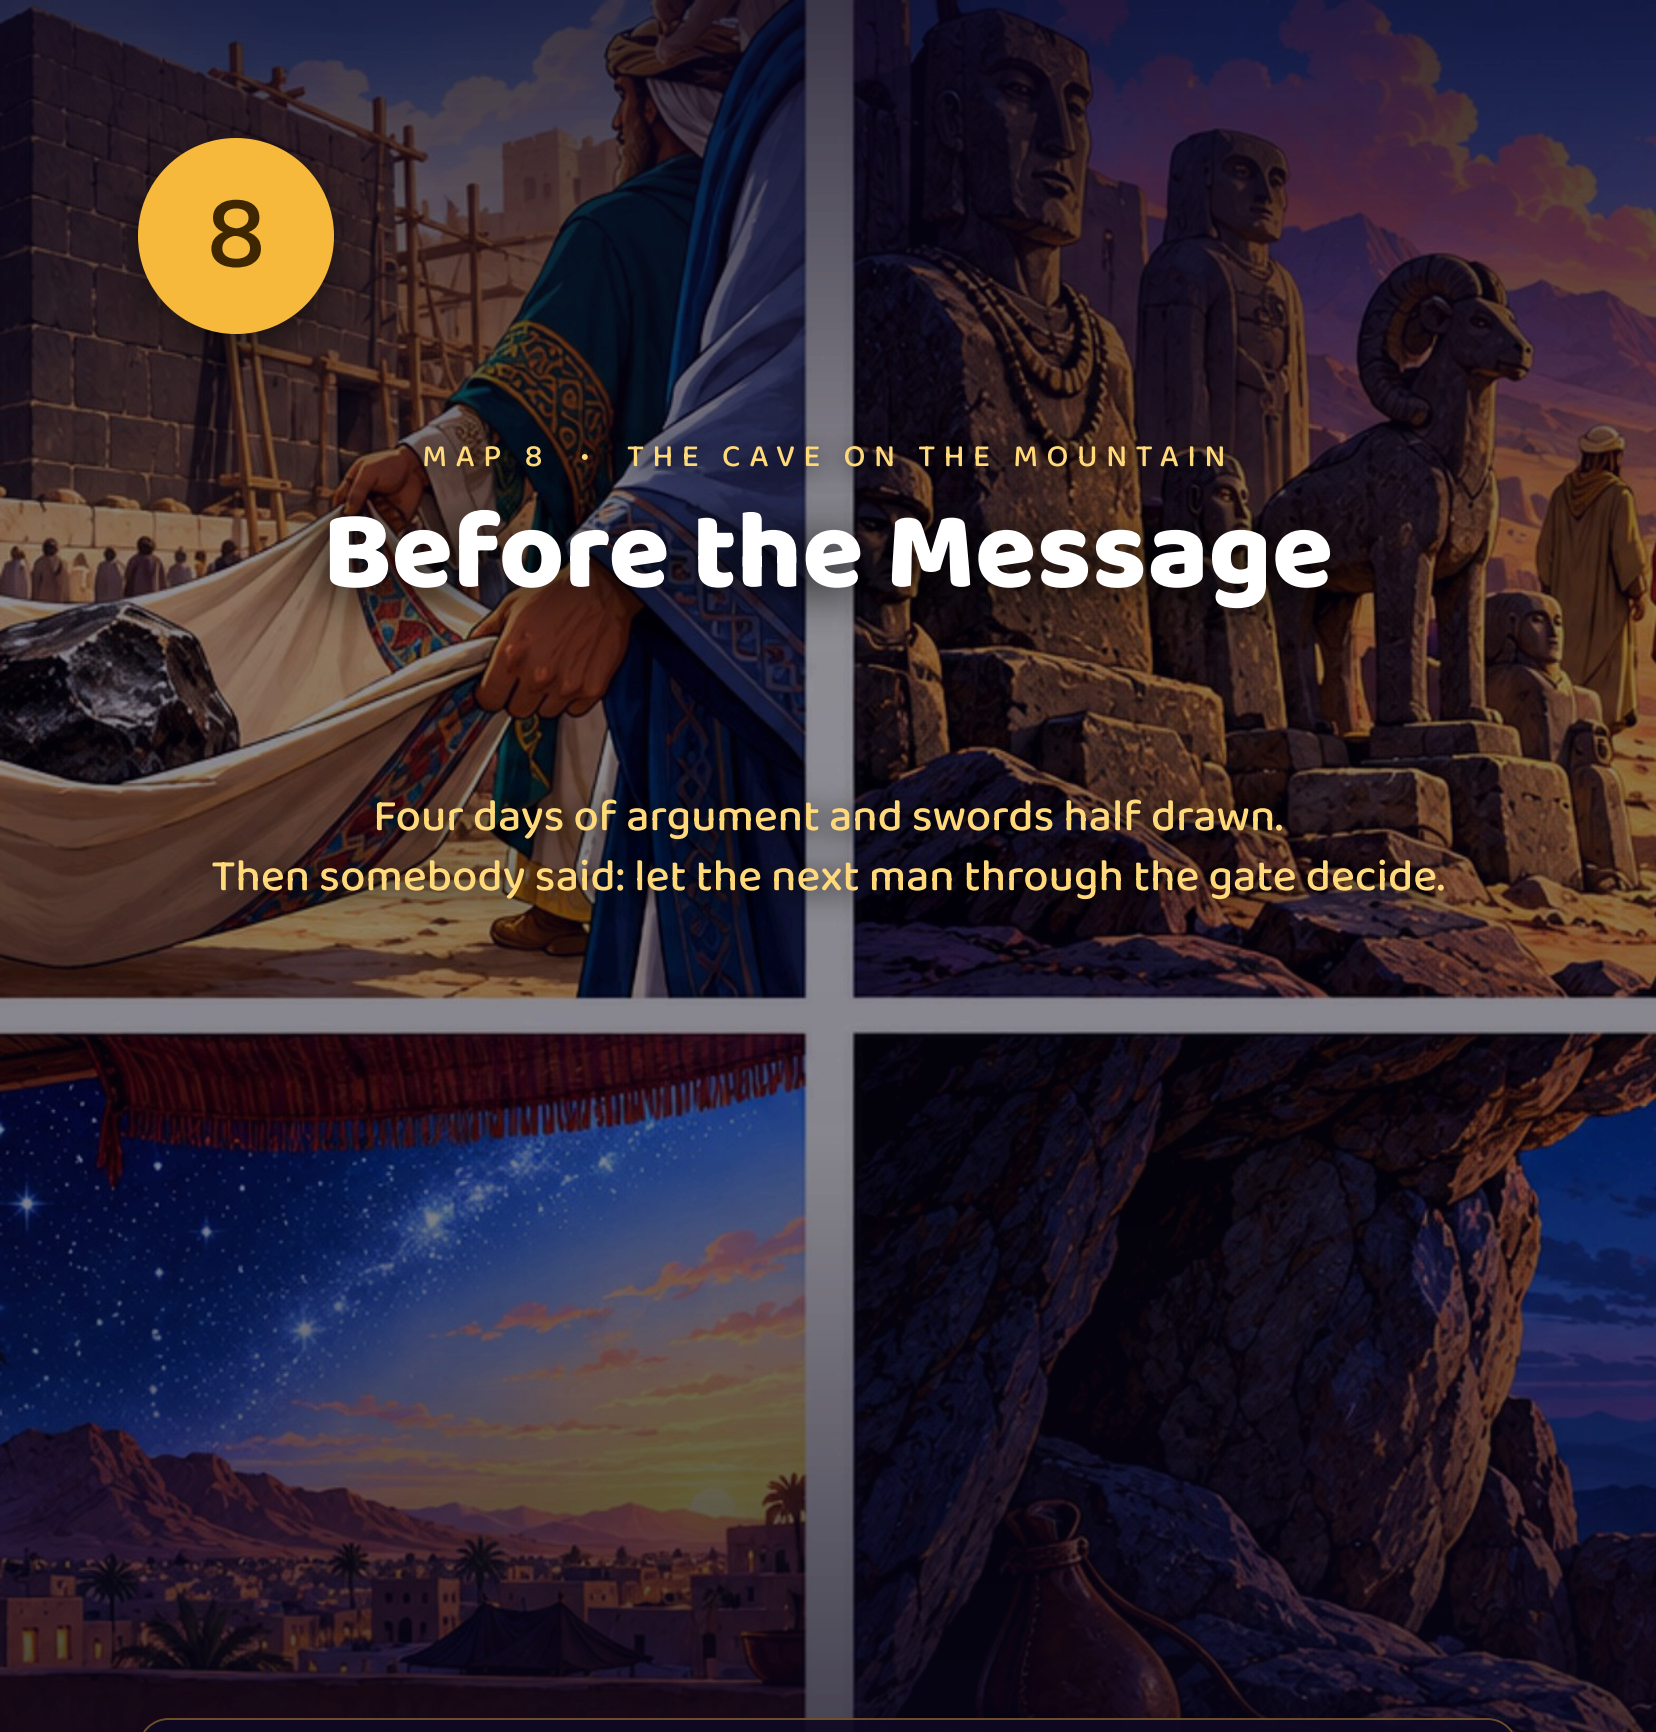
- ○ Zayd ibn Muḥammad
- ○ Zayd al-Amīn
- ○ Zayd of Shām

THINK DEEPER

He pointed out the flaw in his own goods and lost money for it. When was the last time being honest cost you something?

YOUR TURN TO DRAW

Draw Maysarah reporting back — but draw it as three small memory panels floating above him: the scales weighed level, the flaw pointed out, the goods handed over complete. Hands only. No faces needed.



8

MAP 8 · THE CAVE ON THE MOUNTAIN

Before the Message

Four days of argument and swords half drawn.
Then somebody said: let the next man through the gate decide.

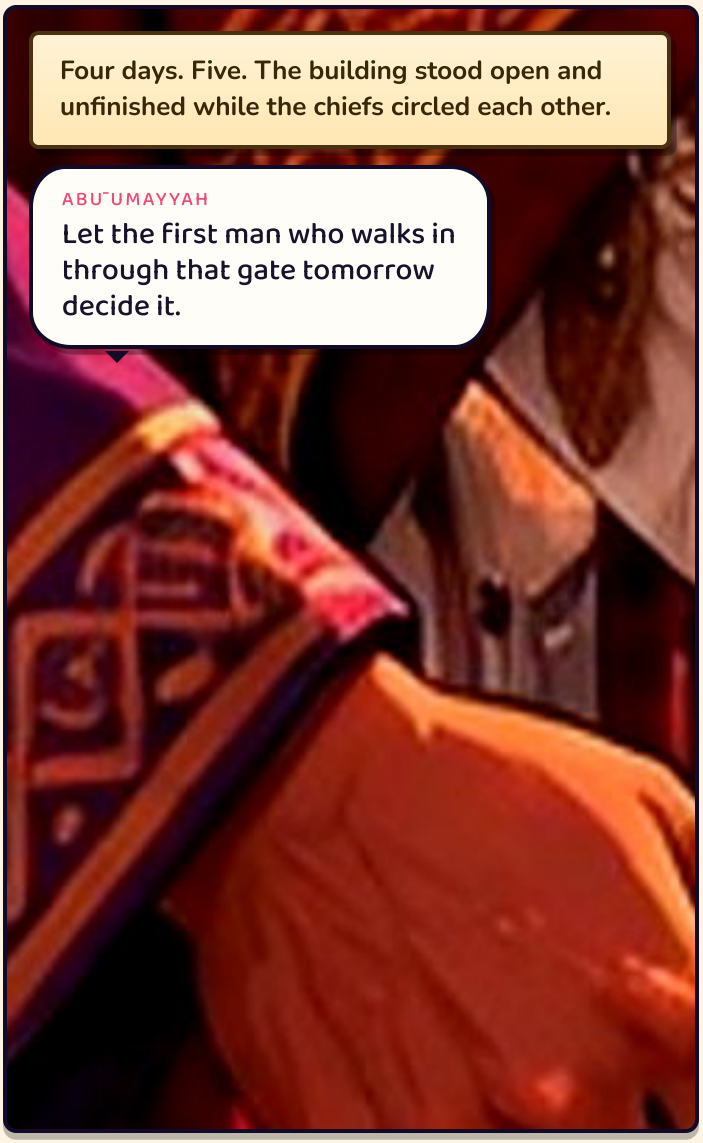
IN THIS MAP

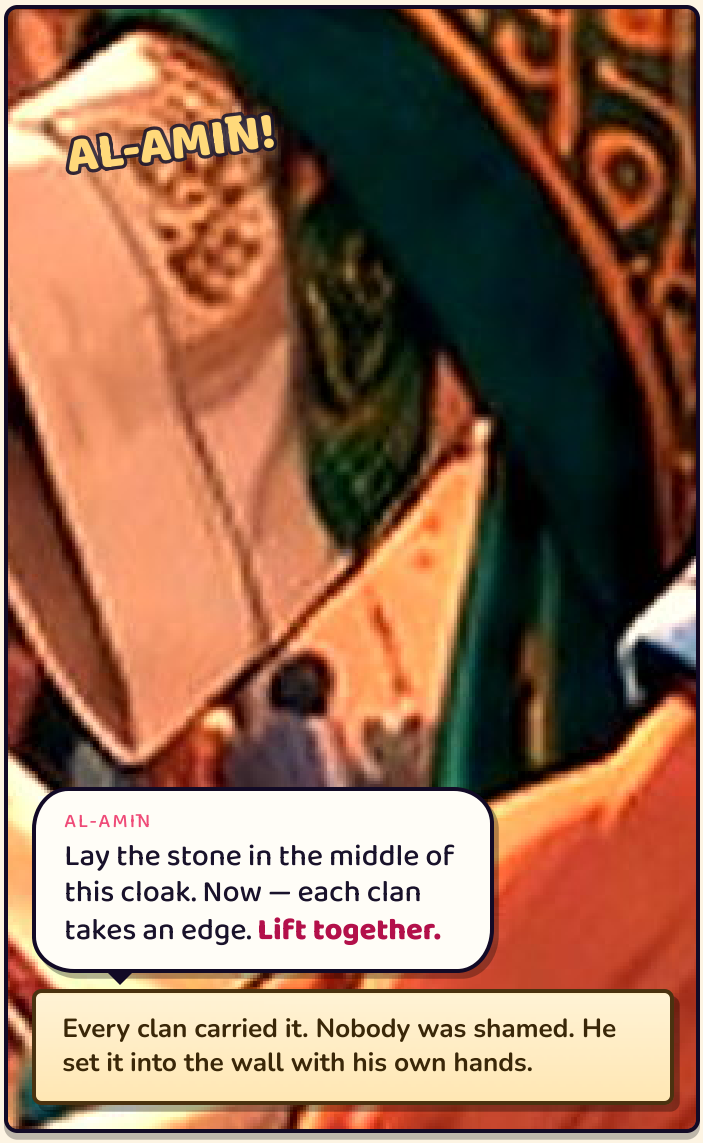
1. The Black Stone
2. Seekers of the Truth
3. Dreams Like the Dawn
4. The Cave of Ḥirāʾ

MAP 8 · STORY 1

The Black Stone

A cloak and four corners

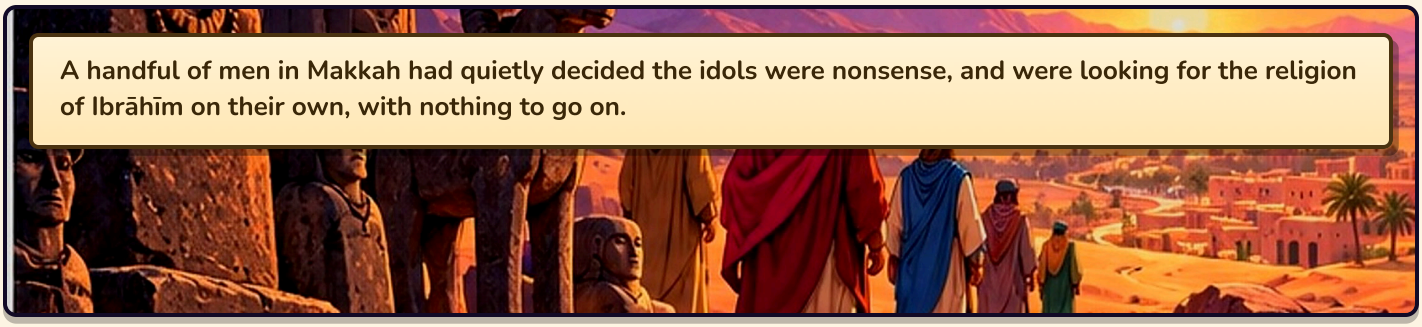




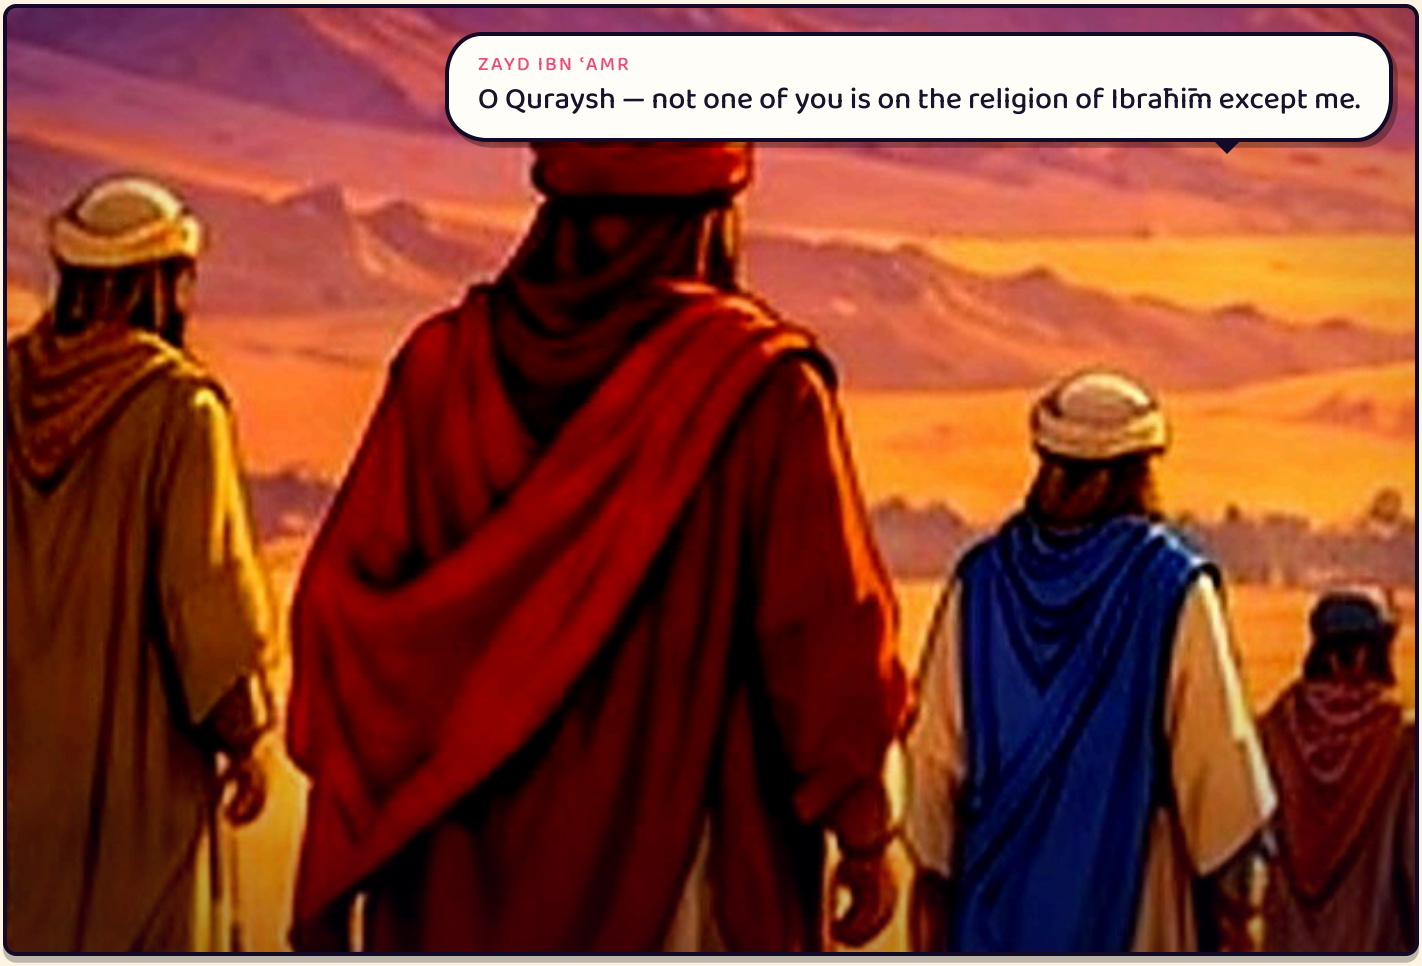
STORY TREASURE

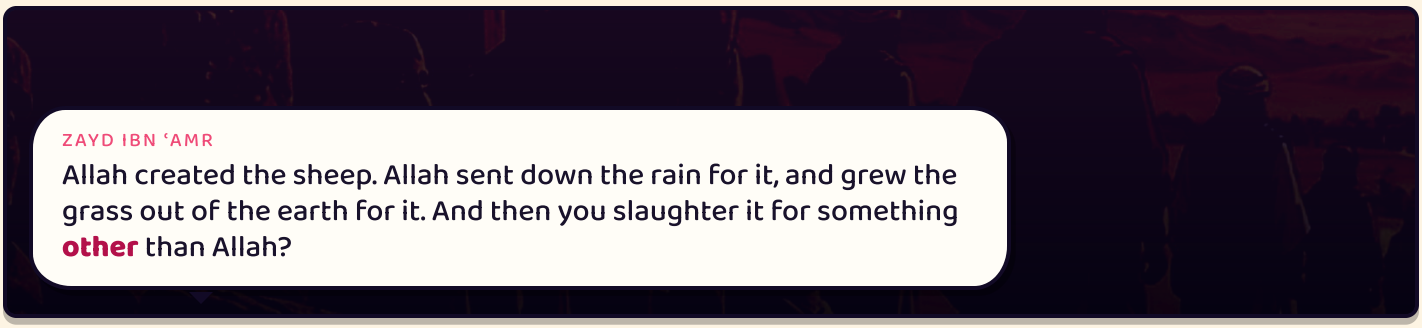
A wise answer does not pick a winner. It makes a way for everybody to keep their honour — and the job gets done.

Seekers of the Truth



A handful of men in Makkah had quietly decided the idols were nonsense, and were looking for the religion of Ibrāhīm on their own, with nothing to go on.





STORY TREASURE

He died before the message came. But alone, in the dark, with no book and no prophet, he had worked out which direction to face.

MAP 8 · STORY 3

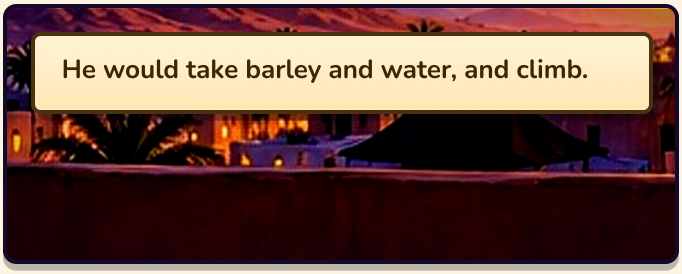
Dreams Like the Dawn

Six months of true dreams

As he came near forty, something new began.

ʿAʾISHAH

The first thing that came to him was true dreams. He never saw a dream without it coming true — clear and bright, like the breaking of the dawn.



STORY TREASURE

Quiet time, away from noise, thinking about Allah and about what He has made — it softens the heart. Nothing else does it the same way.

MAP 8 • STORY 4

The Cave of Ḥiraʾ

Jabal an-Nūr

STORY TREASURE

Even alone on a mountain with barely any food, he was still inviting strangers to eat. Good character does not switch off when nobody is watching.

AND THEN, ONE NIGHT IN RAMAḌĀN…

Something filled the entrance of the cave and said one word to him — a word he did not know how to obey.

Map 8 Quest Check

Before the Message

1. What were the chiefs arguing about?

- ○ Who would lift the Black Stone
- ○ Who would be king
- ○ Who owned the well

2. What did he spread on the ground?

- ○ A cloak
- ○ A carpet
- ○ A sheet of gold

3. What were the seekers of truth called?

- ○ The ḥunafāʾ
- ○ The Quraysh
- ○ The Anṣār

4. What came to him for six months before the revelation?

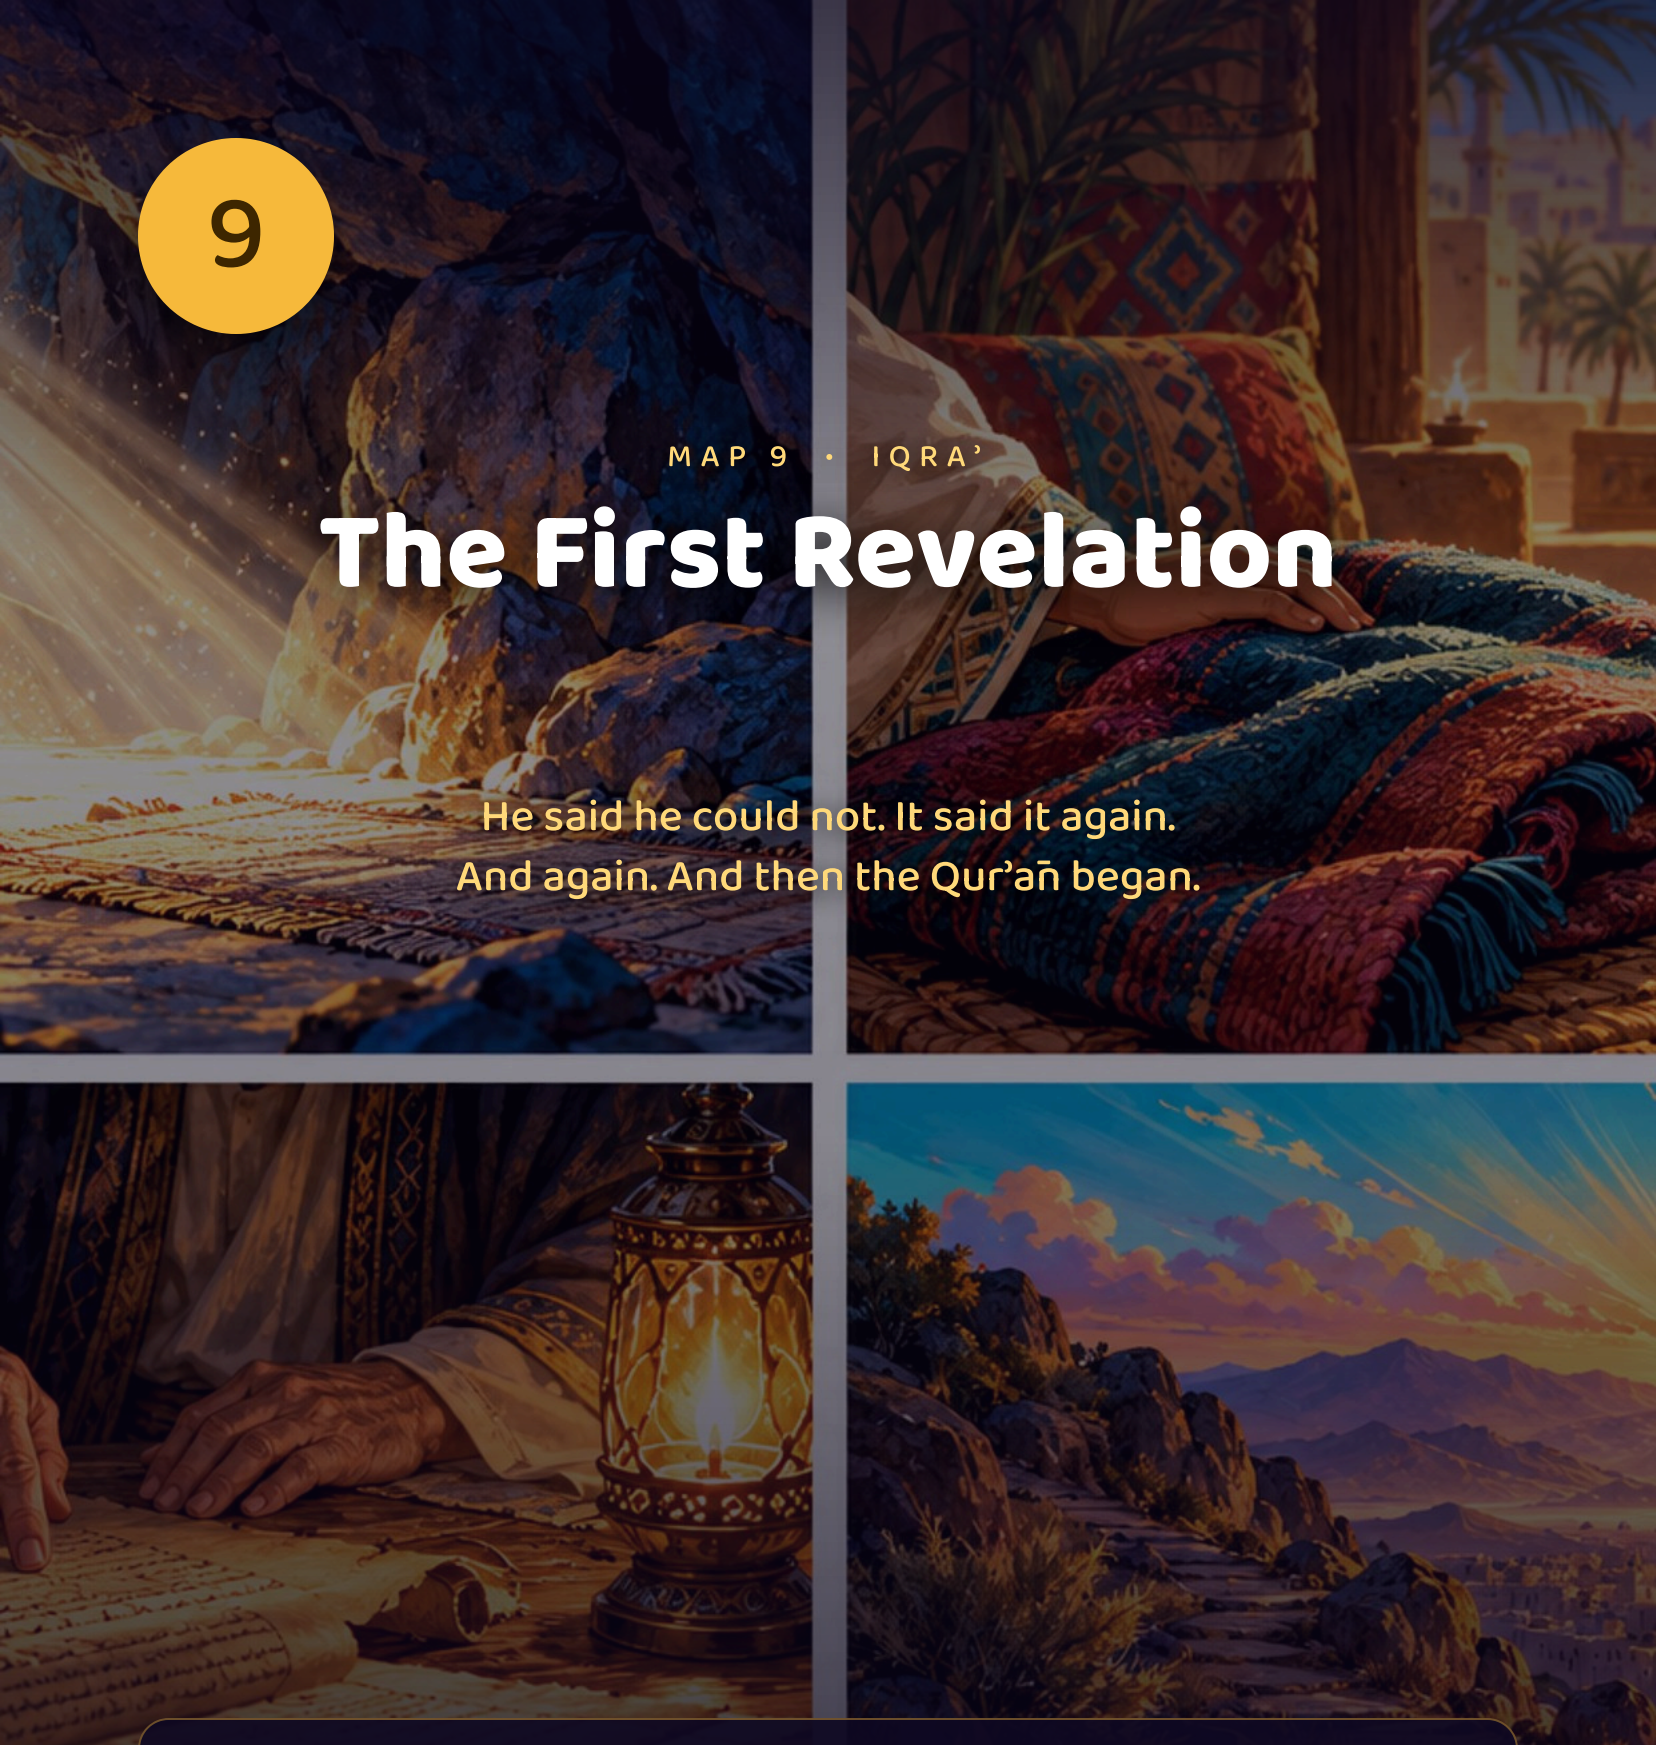
- ○ True dreams
- ○ Letters
- ○ Visitors

THINK DEEPER

He climbed a mountain just to be quiet and think. Where is your quiet place — and when did you last go there without a screen in your hand?

YOUR TURN TO DRAW

Draw the inside of the cave looking out — a small dark opening, the valley far below, stars above. You are sitting where he sat. Leave the cave completely empty.



9

MAP 9 · IQRA’

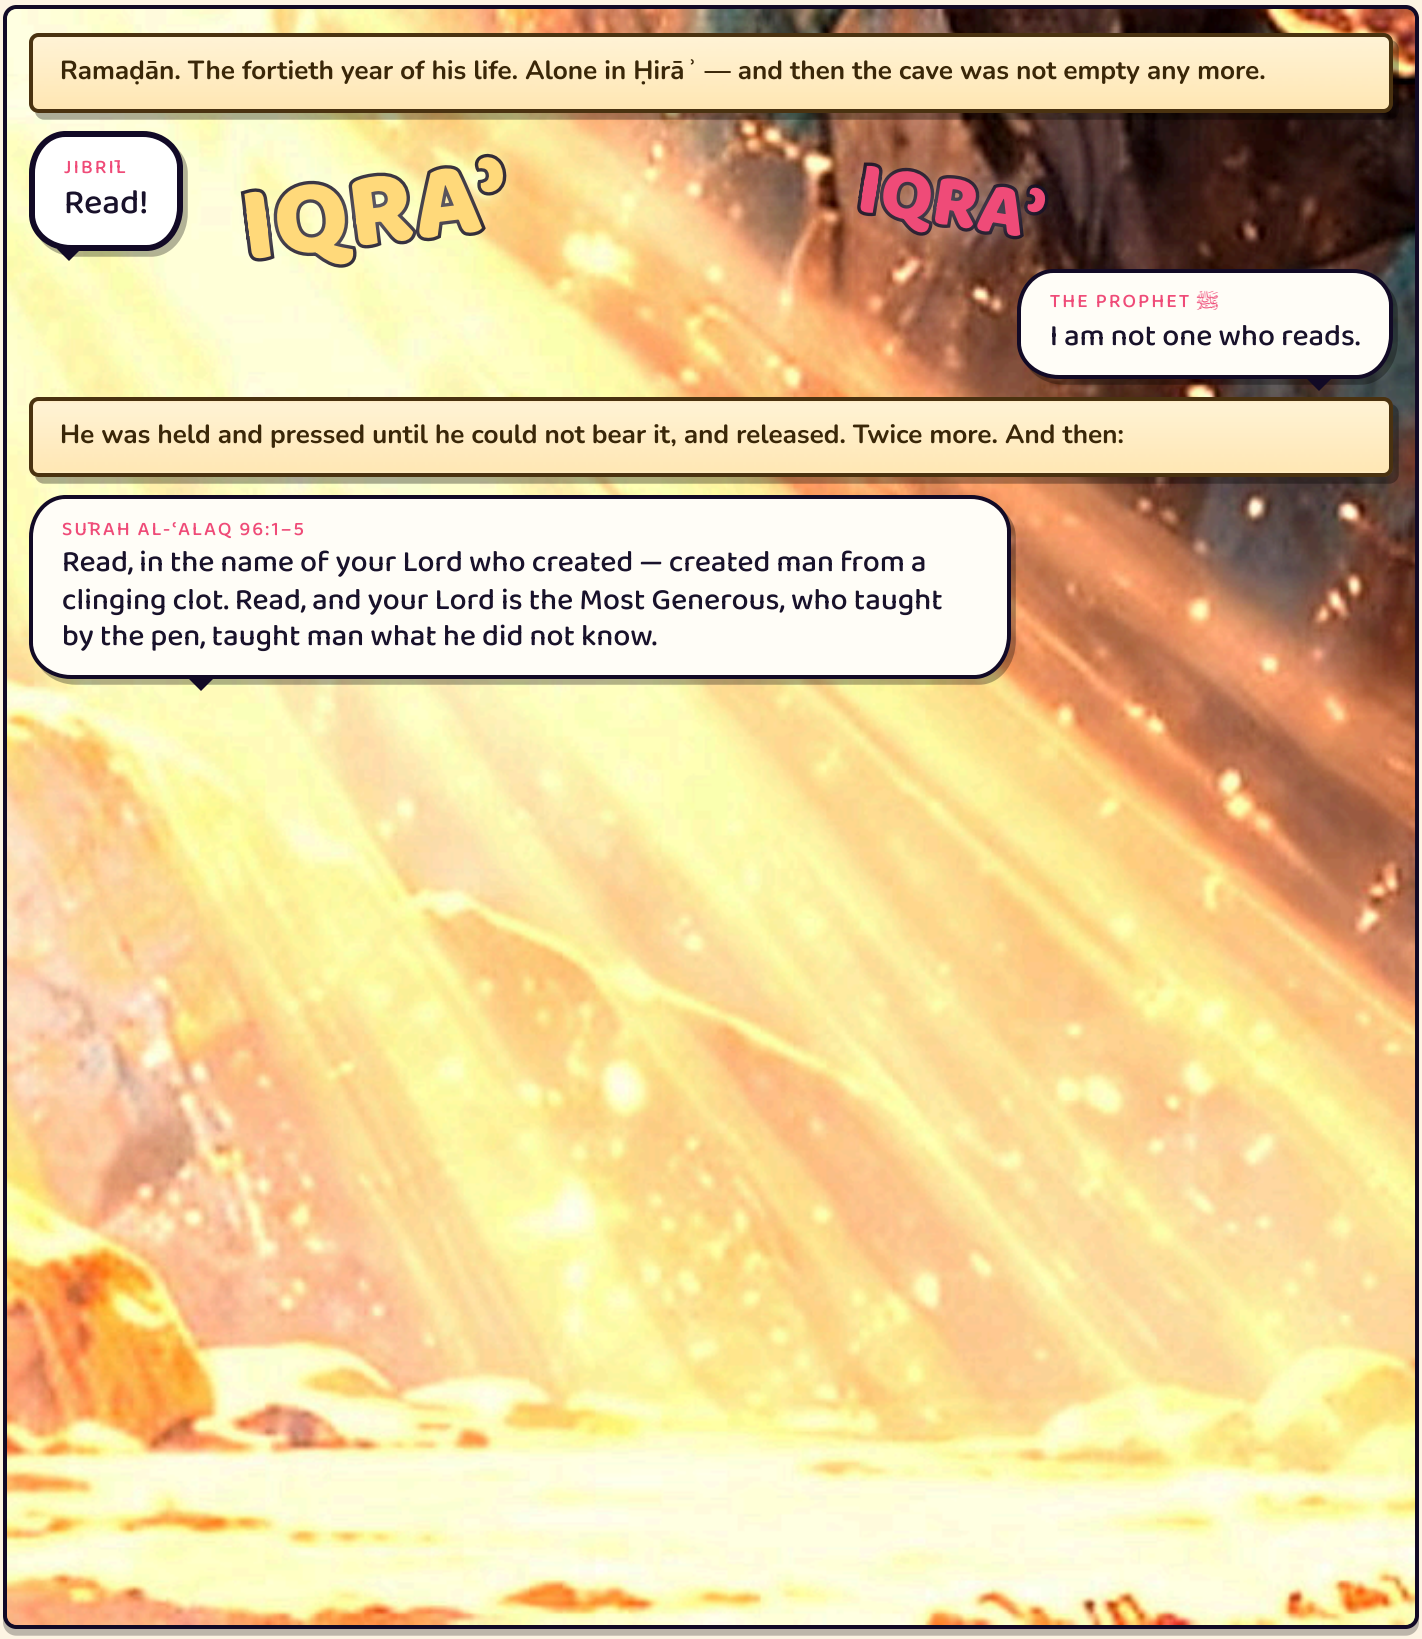
The First Revelation

He said he could not. It said it again.
And again. And then the Qur’ān began.

IN THIS MAP

1. Read!
2. Comfort from Khadījah
3. Waraqah’s Words
4. “Arise and Warn”

Read!

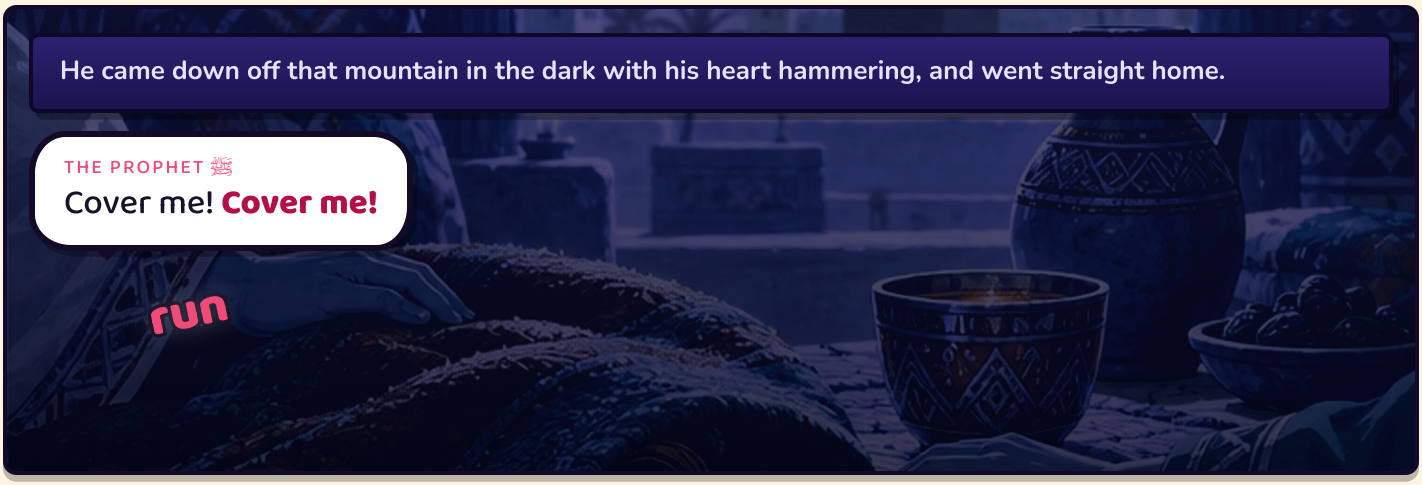


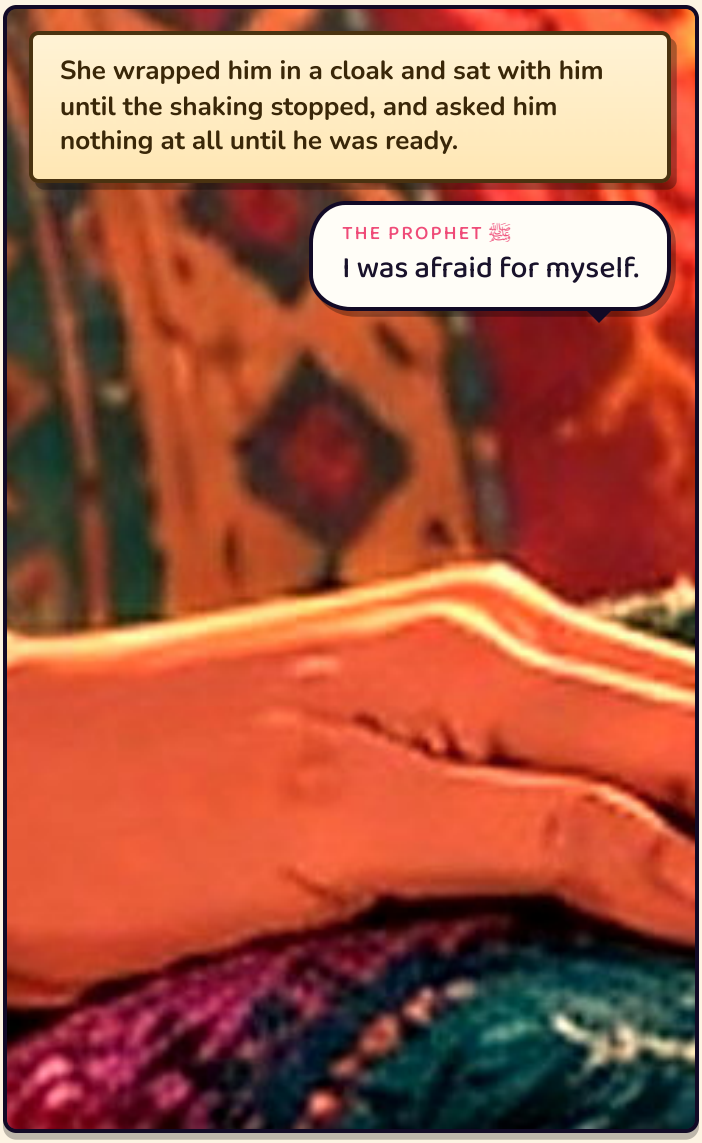
STORY TREASURE

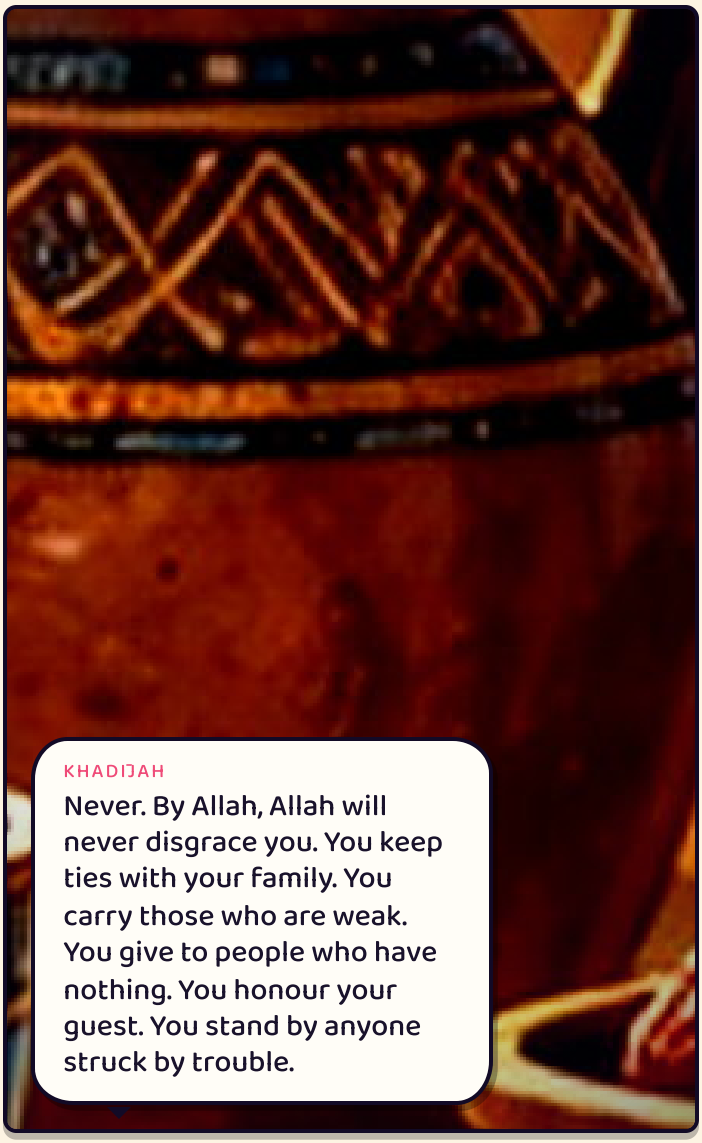
The very first command of the Qurʾān to all of humanity was Read — and the second line mentions the pen.

Comfort from Khadijah

“Allah will never disgrace you”





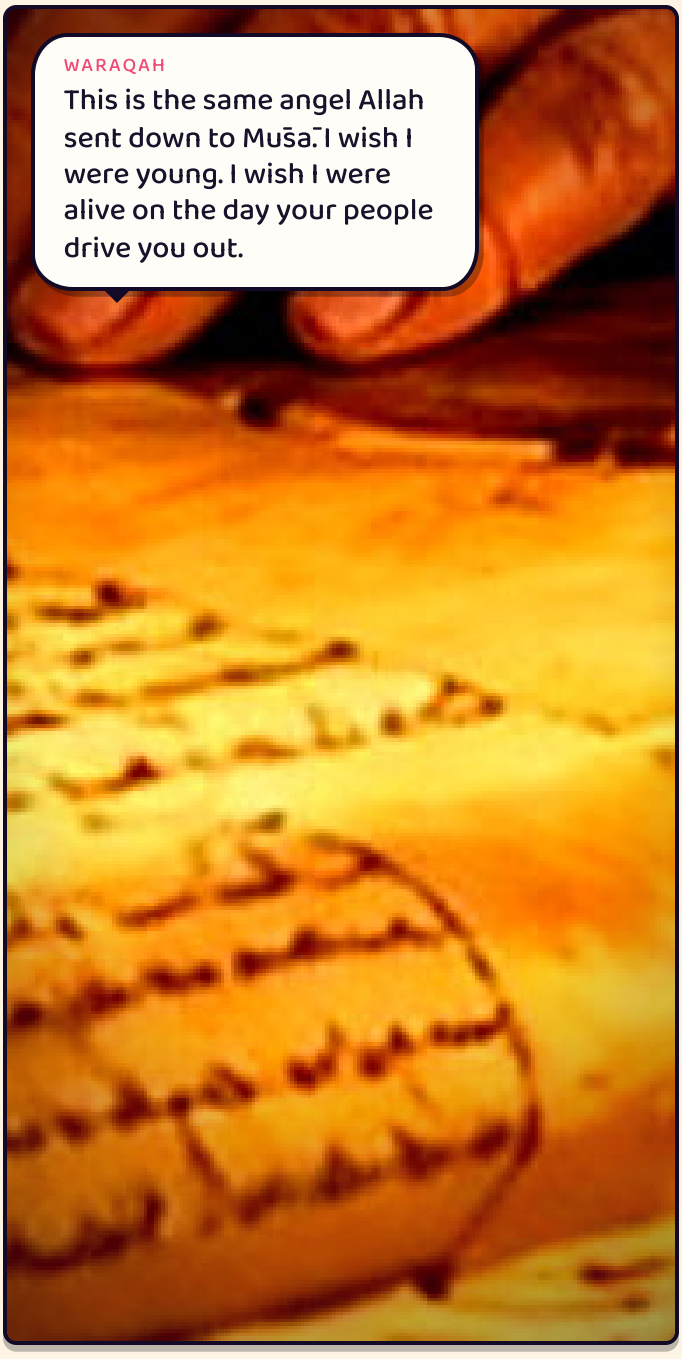


STORY TREASURE

She did not say “don’t worry”. She listed his own good back to him as evidence. That is how you comfort somebody properly.

Waraqah's Words

The old man who knew



STORY TREASURE

The very first expert to confirm the message also told him, on day one, exactly what it was going to cost him. He knew the price from the beginning.

MAP 9 • STORY 4

“Arise and Warn”

The waiting, and the call

Then Jibrīl did not come. Not the next night, or the night after. He waited, and he went back up the mountain, and the waiting was its own kind of hard.

And then one day, walking, he heard a voice out of the sky — and looked up, and the same angel from Ḥirāʾ filled the whole horizon.

SŪRAH AL-MUDDATHTHIR

O you who are wrapped up — arise, and warn! Declare the greatness of your Lord. Keep your clothes pure. And keep away from idols.

That was the end of being left alone with it. The revelation would now keep coming for twenty-three years.

STORY TREASURE

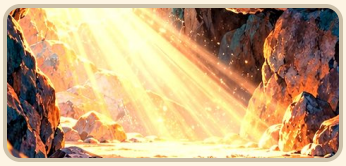
Everything in this book was the ground being prepared. The orphan, the shepherd, the honest trader, the man they called Trustworthy — all of it was for this.

AND NOW THE HARD PART BEGINS…

He had the message. Now he had to carry it — into a city of three hundred and sixty idols, where his own family held the keys.

Map 9 Quest Check

The First Revelation



1. Which angel came to him in the cave?

- ○ Jibrīl
- ○ Isrāfīl
- ○ Mīkāʾīl

2. What was the first word revealed?

- ○ Read
- ○ Fight
- ○ Build

3. Who was Waraqah ibn Nawfal?

- ○ Khadījah's cousin, who knew the earlier scriptures
- ○ A leader of Ṭāʾif
- ○ A trader from Yemen

4. What happened after the first revelation?

- ○ Revelation paused for a while
- ○ Jibrīl came every hour
- ○ He left Makkah

THINK DEEPER

He said "I am not one who reads" three times. What does that tell you about where the Qurʾān actually came from?

YOUR TURN TO DRAW

Draw the cave mouth from far away — one small bright point on a huge black mountain, and the whole sleeping city below with no idea what has just happened. Light one window in the city.

BOOK ONE COMPLETE!

You travelled from Arabia before Islam all the way to the first word of the Qurʾān — nine maps and thirty-six stories.

Next, in Book Two:
the first believers, the call in the open, and a city that turns on its own.
